SC STAYS HC ORDER, KEEPS CoA OUT OF IOA

Supreme Court asks all stakeholders to put on hold Delhi HC order that directed Committee of Administrators to take over the Indian Olympic Association

IOA MOVES SC

The IOA approached the Supreme Court on Thursday and asked them to look into the matter because CoA taking charge of the association could attract suspension from the International Olympic Committee, which had already issued a warning last month

SG BATS FOR IOA

Solicitor General Tushar Mehta representing Centre, also briefed the SC. "The IOA is a unit of the IOC and they have their own rules and according to them, if any national-level body like IOA is represented by a non-elected body then it is treated as a third party interference," he said

CAUTION AFTER FIFA

After what happened with AIFF, the sports ministry is understood to be uncomfortable that IOA, the mother organisation of all Olympic sports in the country, too, could be banned. It would lead to further embarrassment at the global stage with IOC session in Mumbai mid-next year

WHAT SC SAID

After hearing the pleas, in the best interest of the country, the court said, "We are informed that charge of the IOA has not been handed over to the CoA so far. In view of the serious concerns raised in the matter, we direct the parties to maintain status quo."

MONDAY D-DAY FOR INDIAN SPORTS

- The Delhi HC has said that all sports federations should follow its Tuesday order, which means that the sports ministry need to take a re-look at the present Sports Code and update accordingly
- The ministry through various affidavits has been saying that it had granted recognition after making sure the federations adhered to sports code. In fact it's a condition for annual renewal of recognition
- Monday is when the SC will hear FIFA ban on AIFF case as well | P19

Power min pulls spot market plug from 13 states

Andhra, TN, Telangana, Karnataka among penalised states following mounting dues

RAKESH KUMAR @ New Delhi

THE Union power ministry on Thursday barred 13 states from buying or selling electricity from the spot market for not clearing dues of ₹5,085 crore to power generators. This is the first time the Power System Operation Corporation (POSOCO), a body of the power ministry, invoked the Electricity (Late Payment Surcharge and Related Matters) Rules, 2022 to bar discoms from alternative short-term sources.

Power distribution companies (discoms) of four states in the south — Andhra Pradesh, Tamil Nadu, Telangana and Karnataka — are among those on the ban list.

The Electricity (Late Payment Surcharge and Related Matters) Rules, 2022, which was notified this June mandates discoms to pay late payment surcharge (LPS) on the outstanding amount after the due date of payment. The rate of late payment surcharge for the successive months of default will increase by 0.5% for every month of delay, provided the late payment surcharge will not be more than 3% higher than the base rate at any time. Any further delay would invoke penalty provisions, including a complete ban on buying short-term power from the spot market and thereafter regulation of medium-term and long-term power supply.

However, power experts called the action of POSOCO one-sided. The chairman of All India Power Engineers Federation Shailendra Dubey said Posoco is implementing provisions of Electricity (Amendment) Bill 2022, which has been referred to the Standing Committee and could not be passed in the Lok Sabha.

"State governments owe ₹76,000 crore on account of subsidy and ₹67,000 crore on account of the government departments' electricity dues. If this ₹1,43,000 crore is paid by respective state governments to discoms, then discoms will pay dues of gencos," said Dubey.

Tangedco to release ₹228 crore on Saturday

A top official said Tangedco has to pay ₹228 crore to the spot market and the due will be released on Saturday. Currently, Tangeco procures 10 million units from the spot market every day.

Maha flutter as boat with AK-47s, ammo beaches; no terror angle yet

SUDHIR SURYAWANSHI @ Mumbai

A damaged 16-metre boat with AK 47 rifles and bullets and another tub with life jackets that beached at Harihareshwar and Shrivardhan respectively in Konkan on Friday created a flutter, putting Maharashtra on high alert ahead of the festival season.

However, no terror angle was found during preliminary investigations.

Local fishermen were the first to spot the boat at Harihareshwar, which had three AK-47s and 225 bullets. The other life boat had life jackets and other materials. It was found near the shore of Bharadkhol in Shrivardhan.

Deputy Chief Minister Devendra Fadnavis, who is also the home minister, informed the state Assembly that the boat found at Harihareshwar is owned by an Australian national, Hana Lordgan. "The police found three assault rifles and ammunition besides documents related to the boat named Lady Han. Hana's husband James Hobert was the captain of the boat that was going to Europe from Muscat, the capital of Oman."

Its engine failed around 10 am on June 26 this year. "After a distress call, a Korean warship rescued its sailors at 1 pm the same day and handed them over to Oman. Lady Han could not be towed as the sea was rough, so it was abandoned. It started drifting and finally reached Harihareshwar due to the sea's undercurrent, Fadnavis said.

He added that the Coast Guard and other relevant agencies have been put on alert. Both the police and the anti-terrorist squad are probing it from all angles. "As of now, there is no terror angle. Probe is on," he added.

The Neptune Maritime Security Ltd issued a statement saying it provided private security on the vessel in June. The boat was damaged during monsoon. While the crew was rescued, the vessel was abandoned and presumed sunk till it showed up in India.

Health screening, counselling at doorstep of rural poor across state

ASHWINI M SRIPAD @ Bengaluru

THE state government has decided to take health screening, including mental health, to all the villages across the state. Launched under the Gram Panchayat Arogya Amrita Abhiyaana initiative, health screening will be done at work sites in villages. Rural Development and Panchayat Raj (RDPR) department has issued a detailed circular in this regard.

The scheme is currently operational in over 2,800 gram panchayats in 14 districts in collaboration with Karnataka Health Promotion Trust (KHPT). Under the scheme, ASHA workers, who will be given medical kits, will visit various places in rural areas including MNREGA work sites, milk union cooperative societies, schools and work places of self-help groups where women assemble in large numbers. The target group will be tested for anaemia, non-communicable diseases (NCDs) and lifestyle diseases like BP, diabetes malnutrition and mental health. The campaign will be extended to 6,000 gram panchayats across the state.

Uma Mahadevan Dasgupta, Principal Secretary, RDPR department, said the initiative was launched as a pilot projects in 14 districts last year which is being expanded. "For mental health, we have partnered with KHPT whose mental health helplines will do the initial assessment and counselling and depending on the need, the patients will be referred to the district mental health team," she said. Uma pointed out that it is the first programme of its kind where micro-planning and organising capabilities of the gram panchayats (which they displayed during the Covid-19 pandemic) will be decentralised for carrying out health screening to the work sites of the rural poor."

Speaking to TNIE, L K Ateeq, Additional Chief Secretary, RDPR department said the very purpose of this initiative is to reach out to every individual in rural areas and create awareness about lifestyle diseases too. Ateeq said they are involving ASHA workers who will be trained to detect and refer.

MHA WANTED TO SHIFT ROHINGYA

CHANDAN NANDY @ New Delhi

EVEN as the Union home ministry on Thursday denied giving any direction to provide EWS (economically weaker section) flats to Rohingya illegal migrants, moves to resettle at least 250 of them at Bakkarwala in West Delhi were in the works since at least March 2021.

A series of correspondence between the Home Police-II department of the Government of National Capital Territory (GNCT) of Delhi and the NDMC Chairman indicate that attempts were made to move a section of Rohingya living at Shahzada Bagh and Lampur to "suitable accommodation for permanent restriction centre for foreign inmates at Bakkarwala village" since June 2021. A copy of a letter is in the possession of this newspaper.

The letter reveals that the Foreigners Regional Registration Office (FRRO), which is under the Ministry of Home Affairs (MHA), itself had requested the GNCT Home Department and the NDMC to "allot the Baraat Ghar along with all EWS flats, Bakkarwala Village, Delhi, to them to accommodate the foreign inmates, along with basic minimum housing facilities". This, sources said, referred to Rohingya migrants.

The June 2021 letter was followed by at least two more meetings between the MHA, Delhi government officials and senior police officers in January and July 2022. In both meetings, the police officers pushed keeping the 250 Rohingya at one place for effective surveillance.

The Delhi Home Department letter of June 23, 2021, reveals that plans were afoot to "restrict the movement of foreign inmates" at Shahzada Bagh and Lampur. On February 21 last year, a "joint inspection with representatives of (the) social welfare department" was made to "search for a suitable accommodation for (a) permanent restriction centre for foreign inmates at Bakkarwala village, Delhi." The site had almost 240 flats built under EWS category and owned by the NDMC.

Windfall tax on diesel export up, ATF levy back

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@New Delhi

INDIA on Thursday hiked the windfall profit tax on export of diesel and brought back the tax on Aviation Turbine Fuel (ATF). According to a notification of the finance ministry, the excise duty on export of diesel was increased to ₹7 per litre from ₹5 per litre.

The duty on jet fuel was hiked to ₹2 from nil. However, the ministry cut cess on domestically produced crude to ₹13,000 from ₹17,750. Also, there is no excise duty on the export of petrol.

In July last, the government, in a bid to regulate fuel prices, decided to raise excise duty (on export) by ₹6 per litre on ATF, ₹6 per litre on petrol and ₹13 per litre on diesel.

It had also decided to levy a cess of ₹23,250 per tonne on export of crude.

2 departments lock horns over auction of government school

DONNA EVA @ Bengaluru

THE Department of School Education and Literacy has decided to approach the court against the Revenue Department's move to auction a 77-year-old government school in Bengaluru.

Established in 1945, the Government High School, housed in Rajatha Complex in Chickpet, provides education to around 85 students and is likely to be sold to a private company.

In 1979, the building was given on lease to a private firm, Rajatha Enterprises. The company built a complex on the premises and gave the ground floor to commercial shops and the first floor to the school.

Following the expiry of the lease in June 2021, the company approached the Revenue Department offering to buy the building following which officials from the department appraised the value of the property. The Education Department took note of the issue when the Revenue Department refused to register the property in the name of the school. The Education Department, which made several appeals, is now likely to move court.

According to a letter written by the Commissioner for Public Instruction, R Vishal, the land belongs to the Education Department as a government school is currently operating from the building, though the Revenue Department originally owned the land. "We are planning to approach the court and seek an interim order," Vishal told TNIE. P2

CONVICTION SET ASIDE

Small differences in marriage fine, HC advises woman

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@ Bengaluru

DISMISSING as 'trivial' the charges made by a woman against her husband and her mother-in-law, the Karnataka High Court set aside the conviction of the two by a trial court, giving them relief in the case.

The trial court had convicted the husband and his mother in September 2013 for offences punishable under Section 498-A (read with Section 34 of IPC and Section 3 and 4 of Dowry Prohibition Act). The sessions court upheld the conviction in December 2016 by dismissing the appeal filed by the two.

Differences in the customs and rituals between husband and wife belonging to two sects of the same caste are trivial issues which do not amount to harassment or cruelty under Section 498-A of IPC, the Karnataka High Court said, while setting aside the conviction.

Justice H B Prabhakara Sastry passed the order while allowing the petitions filed by the husband and his mother who questioned the order of conviction.

"Both wife and husband appear to have given undue importance to their stay in the United States of America…They have forgotten that the family is a unique unit in a society and mutual understanding among the members in a family would not only help in achieving their goals and purpose, but would also help in promoting happiness in the family, thus building a healthy society. Small and minor likes and dislikes, differences, would be common in most of the families, which the family members are required to cope with, adjust, tolerate, enjoy and maintain good atmosphere with love, affection, mutual respect and good health in the family. However, the wife appears to be too sensitive in magnifying several trivial aspects into big issues which has ultimately resulted in the present case," the court said.

The court also said that the complainant failed to establish that there was any demand from the accused for dowry or that they have accepted or taken any dowry. Besides raising other "trivial issues", the wife also complained that on the very first night of their marriage, her husband told her that he does not want to have a child for about three years, and that he would think about it after completion of his MS degree.

After I-Day, clamour for celebrating Ganesha fest grows

Hindu groups to give representation to DC

MOHAMMED YACOOB
@ Bengaluru

DAYS after the Independence Day celebrations, which saw the Tricolour being hoisted for the first time at the disputed Chamarajapet Idgah Maidan on August 15, Chamarajpete Nagarikara Vakoota (CNV) and other pro-Hindu organisations have decided to approach the Revenue Department seeking permission to organise Ganesha Chaturthi festivities there.

A CNV member said they would visit the Deputy Commissioners' office on Friday and submit an application. "We wanted to meet the Urban Deputy Commissioner to hand over a representation with regard to the Ganesha festival, but owing to his busy schedule, we will meet him on Friday and submit the application," said Shashank, the CNV member.

Echoing the same, the president of Vishwa Sanatan Parishad (SVP), S Bhaskaran, said that Hindu groups and local residents want to display unity, and hence, they plan to give a joint representation. "CNV will be given first priority. If they want to take the lead, other groups, including VSP, Sri Ram Sena, and Hindu Janagruthi Samiti, will extend cooperation and celebrate together. If they don't, then we will take the lead and hold the festival here at Chamarajapete playground," said Bhaskaran.

The Hindu groups have been raising the issue of land ownership for the last few months. The groups targeted the Wakf Board, which claims to be the custodian of the 2.5-acres plot of land. After the probe and consultation with its legal department, BBMP Joint Commissioner - West SN Srinivasa ruled the land in the Revenue Department's favour. The Hindu groups contended that the land was identified as per BBMP records of 1974 and permission to events like Independence Day, Republic Day, Kannada Rajyotsava and Hindu festivals should be allowed.

The Wakf Board, on the other hand, had claimed that as per gazette notification of 1965, the land was ruled in favour of the board. However, as per the rule, the Board did not apply for Khatha since then, and hence, the Palike termed the land as Revenue property.

'Selling school to pvt party could hinder education'

IN the letter, he said that the sale of the school to a private party could lead to disruption of education of the students currently studying there. Hence, it should not be leased to private parties and the property must be registered in the name of the school.

The issue has attracted criticism from various quarters, with citizens and organisations questioning why the school was leased to a private company in the first place. "This issue is a wake-up call to the Education Department. The laxity in maintaining records of schools is a major problem and cases like this show that any government school can be bought by a private entity," said Shashi Kumar, General Secretary, Karnataka Associated Management of Schools.

TBM 'Vindhya' breaks through at Pottery Town Metro station

'Vindhya' breaks through at Pottery Town Metro stn

ENS @ Bengaluru

AFTER 184 days of drilling underground, Tunnel Boring Machine (TBM) 'Vindhya' made a breakthrough at the upcoming Pottery Town Metro station at 10.30 am on Thursday. It has completed 900 metres of tunnelling from Cantonment station to Pottery Town station.

An official release said Vindhya commenced tunnelling work on February 15 this year. With the completion of its second leg, the TBM has now tunnelled a total of 1,755 metres. It was carrying out the operation parallel to TBM 'Urja', which emerged at the same station nearly two months ago.

Infrastructure major Larsen & Toubro has been contracted for the tunnelling work for the Bangalore Metro Rail Corporation Limited (BMRCL). A senior BMRCL official said that similar to Urja, Vindhya would be dragged from the South End to the North End of Pottery Town using power jacks with the Head Cutter pushed first and the gantries later. "It would be dismantled here and its parts removed out of a vertical shaft erected near Shaadi Mahal. The process could take up to January 2023 to be completed. When that is done, Vindhya would have completed its job for us," he said.

Vindhya had to carry out the challenging task of tunnelling under a railway line similar to Urja, the official said, adding, "No major hiccups were encountered during the operation."

Vindhya and eight other TBMs have been employed for boring work to build a 13.8-km underground corridor for the Nagawara-Kalena Agrahara Line of Phase-II.

State, KEA oppose CET repeaters' plea, High Court seeks solution

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@ Bengaluru

THE Karnataka High Court adjourned the hearing on petitions filed by CET repeaters to August 22, to enable the State government to decide on a possible solution to their woes. Justice SR Krishna Kumar gave time to the State government so it can examine giving weightage for CET marks and PU-II marks in the ratio of 75:25, as a one-time measure, considering the peculiar scenario due to Covid-19.

The court mentioned that CET repeaters who passed PU-II in 2021, had not taken the written examination and were given marks based on criteria fixed by the authorities due to the pandemic.

The petitioner-students moved court, seeking directions to allot them professional seats in the current academic year, taking into consideration marks obtained in the qualifying examination held the previous year, along with marks secured in CET held in 2022 for the academic year 2022-23.

KEA STANCE AGAINST REPEATERS

The Karnataka Examination Authority (KEA) filed objections before the high court, stating that none of the 23,344 petitioner-students appeared for the qualifying examination in 2021, as the examination was cancelled. Thus, the marks granted to the petitioners cannot be considered to determine their merit for the present academic year. Praying to court to dismiss the petitions, it also contended that the rank of students of 2022 will get altered to their detriment, as the petitioners never appeared for the qualifying examination. The State government contended that 2.16 lakh students applied for CET for 2022-23. Of them, 2.09 lakh students wrote the CET in June this year, and 26,670 are repeaters like the petitioner-students. If the petitioners' prayer is allowed, grave injustice will be done to around 1.83 lakh students who have actually undertaken the PU Board exam and secured ranks under the CET merit list for 2022-23.

BDA REVISES HEBBAL FLYOVER PLAN, CALLS FOR FRESH TENDERS

S LALITHA @ Bengaluru

THE Bangalore Development Authority (BDA) has incorporated two major changes to its earlier plan for the Hebbal flyover and has submitted a fresh proposal to the state government for its consent. A largely signal-free elevated route from K R Puram towards the Bengaluru airport and the linking of K R Puram with the existing flyover from Tumakuru to the city are the two major changes proposed.

An additional two lanes have been proposed from the airport to the city. At present, there are two lanes.

A top official said the previous tender based on the earlier plan would be cancelled now. "We called for fresh tenders a week ago in line with this revised plan. The government is likely to approve it. If the government does not approve our revised plan, we will withdraw the tender later," he said.

Namma Metro is building one of its lines via Hebbal (Outer Ring Road line) and to facilitate that, it will demolish the flyover leading from K R Puram to the city. "By carrying out certain geometric modifications, BDA will link K R Puram to the existing Tumakuru flyover," he said.

The other plan is that of an elevated signal-free route. "It will not be completely signal-free as of now as the route between the airport to Gorguntapalya and K R Puram to Gorguntapalya will have signals. But in future, we plan to make it completely signal-free by providing additional underpasses from K R Puram to Gorguntaplaya," he said.

The move would help pedestrians as the area would be decongested near the Hebbal flyover as BMRCL, BMTC and suburban rail projects would merge here, another official said.

The tender document issued on August 12 has called for the construction of balance works of flyover, an additional flyover on eastern side and an underpass at Hebbal Junction on Outer Ring Road with the National Highway.

The money to be deposited as security for the tender has been specificed as Rs 22.5 crore. The cost of the entire flyover project has not been prepared yet and will be done so at a later stage, he said.

Ravi Poojary acquitted in builder murder case

Prosecution has failed to prove case against accused beyond reasonable doubt, says special sessions judge

MG CHETAN @Bengaluru

NOTORIOUS gangster Ravi Poojary was acquitted by a special court here on Thursday in the 2001 murder case of 'builder' Subbaraju due to a lack of evidence.

Poojary alias Ravi Prakash alias Anthony Fernandez alias Raki Fernandez, who hails from Malpe in Udupi district, was accused number two in the Subbaraju murder case. Six other accused, including reformed don late Muthappa Rai, prime accused in the case, were acquitted in 2004. While sharpshooter Nitin Sawant, who had allegedly gunned down Subbaraju, was killed in a police encounter, another sharpshooter Yusuf Bachkana was only accused to be convicted in the case and was sentenced to life.

Poojary, who had escaped from India in the 90s and was operating from foreign countries, was arrested in Senegal in 2019 in a coordinated operation by Karnataka police and Senegal law enforcement agencies. He was extradited from Senegal and brought to India in 2020.

The police had interrogated him in connection with Subbaraju's murder and submitted a split-up chargesheet to the court. The Special Court on Central Prison premises had conducted the trial during which 12 witnesses were examined.

On Thursday, Special Sessions Judge G Raghavendra acquitted Poojary as the prosecution failed to prove the case against the accused beyond reasonable doubt. Dilraj Rohit Sequeira, who represented Poojary, told TNIE the prosecution failed to produce any incriminating material. "The acquittal of six accused in the main case (2004 judgment) turned favourable for my client. Also, the prosecution could not produce incriminating material objects such as the weapon used to commit the murder and the mobile phones used to communicate.."

Subbaraju, a real estate businessman, was shot dead in his office, Srinivasa Enterprises, located in Sheshadripuram, on January 5, 2001. The murder was allegedly carried out at the behest of Poojary. Investigations had revealed Subbaraju had angered Muthappa Rai over disputed prime properties on Cunningham Road, Crescent Road and other localities. As Subbaraju had turned down Rai's offer to close some deal, the latter had allegedly met Poojary at his villa near the American Embassy in Uganda, where he gave supari (contract). Poojary allegedly gave the hit job to the sharpshooters and allegedly took ₹2 lakh from Rai.

Auto driver arrested for killing sex worker

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@Bengaluru

THE South East division police have cracked a case of murder of a sex worker by arresting an auto driver. The victim's body, which was found near the Madiwala lake on August 11, had created panic among morning walkers. The police went around the South East and South division police limits with the pictures of the victim.

Later, one person identified her as a sex worker who was regularly seen in JP Nagar, Jayanagar and Marenahalli areas. The police checked footage of over 80 CCTVs and saw her getting into an auto. The auto's registration number was unclear in the footage. The police while checking the footage of bars and restaurants in MICO Layout and Tilaknagar areas got some details of the accused but could not trace him.

The police also managed to contact her husband and got her mobile phone number. The police, while checking the call list, found out that a particular number from which a call was made to her had been switched off on the night of August 10. Based on the IMEI number, the police found out another number was being used from the same phone and zeroed in on the accused. The auto driver, after having sex with the victim, killed and robbed her of her cash and other valuables.

The victim was drunk at the time of the incident. The accused has been identified as Imran, 28, a resident of Anjanapura.

"The accused has confessed to having committed the murder for gain. He had picked up the victim from Marenahalli area near JP Nagar. He had brought liquor and an omelette for her. After bringing her near the Madiwala lake, they had sex and tried to rob her. When she tried to resist, he pushed her out of the auto and smashed her head with a stone. He escaped after leaving his shoes at the spot," said a police officer.

Govt left embarrassed by netas, leaders; Cong conspiracy: Arun Singh

BJP national general secretary Arun Singh (centre), former CM BS Yediyurappa and Minister Govind Karjol during the party's core committee meeting in Belagavi

TAKING serious note of some BJP leaders putting the Basavaraj Bommai government in an embarrassing situation with their statements, the party high command warned them to be cautious and not issue statements regardless of whether they are indoors, in public or even over telephone.

BJP General Secretary incharge of Karnataka Arun Singh said the Congress is conspiring to spoil the image of the BJP in the run-up to the 2023 assembly polls. He asked party workers not to make such remarks. The office-bearers' meeting held earlier also made a similar resolution.

The Congress had termed it a "lame-duck government" after the remarks of Law and Parliamentary Affairs Minister J C Madhu Swamy that the government was not functioning, but "being managed" went viral. Madhu Swamy's cabinet colleagues, including S T Somashekara and Munirathna, attacked him. Revenue Minister R Ashoka also felt that Madhu Swamy should not have spoken in that manner over phone. Madhu Swamy offered to resign if Chief Minister Bommai instructed him to do so.

Earlier, former BJP MLA B Suresh Gowda's remarks on leadership change had put the party in a tight spot. The Congress had, through a series of tweets, trolled the BJP, asking if it was installing a third chief minister in the state. Minister B Sriramulu's remarks that he wants Congress leader Siddaramaiah to become CM again, too embarrassed the BJP.

Addressing these issues, Arun Singh issued a warning to the party's 'outspoken' leaders, and alleged that the Congress is conspiring to mislead the people of Karnataka.

"I have information that it is creating confusion to mislead people as it has no mandate. Congress has become a conspiracy party and may also tamper with tapes of BJP leaders. I suggest to party workers not to say anything about the party and government even inside a room or during a telephonic conversation," Singh warned.

On speculation over leadership change, he clarified the question doesn't arise as Bommai is a common man's CM, and has been delivering the goods for farmers with 'Raitha Vidyanidhi' scholarship to their children, the poor and more importantly, SC/ST communities. On cabinet expansion, Singh clarified it is Bommai's prerogative. He said that opposition leader Siddaramaiah's birthday bash had proved he was a more popular leader than KPCC chief DK Shivakumar.

Leader of Opposition Siddaramaiah waves at the crowd during his visit to the rain-hit areas in Kodagu district on Thursday | EXPRESS

CONGRESS Legislature Party leader and former Chief Minister Siddaramaiah faced stiff resistance from BJP workers during his visit to Kodagu on Thursday, during his visit to flood-affected areas.

When his convoy reached Thithimathi check-post, BJP workers showed black flags and waved portraits of Hindu ideologue VD Savarkar, to express their displeasure over the Congress stand on the issue. They shouted 'Go Back, Siddaramaiah!' slogans, and threw a picture of Savarkar at him through the vehicle window.

Darshan, a protester, said Siddaramaiah had introduced Tipu Jayanti when he was the chief minister, hurting the sentiments of Kodavas. Tipu was a tyrant, he said, who had massacred many Kodavas during his regime. "Tipu Jayanti has led to the killings of many innocent people and disturbed peace in Kodagu," he alleged.

Later, Siddaramaiah had to face a similar protest in Madikeri. BJP and Congress workers came face-to-face at the toll gate, and even threw eggs at each other. BJP workers shouted slogans, calling Siddaramaiah 'anti-Hindu' and 'anti-Kodava', resulting in tension in the area for an hour. Siddaramaiah left the spot after police intervened and brought the situation under control. When returning from Kodagu, protesters blocked his vehicle near Guddehosuru in Kushalnagar, and shouted slogans, Police resorted to lathicharge to disperse of the protesters. A police wireless also was misplaced during the clash. SP Aiyappa spoke to leaders of both parties to normalise the situation. A few journalists and protestors suffered minor injuries during the lathi charge. Siddaramaiah later visited district Congress leader Chandrakala at her residence in Kushalnagar, following which he alleged that police have connived with the BJP workers, resulting in the situation.

Muthalik joins issue

Sriram Sena leader Pramod Muthalik joined issue over putting up a flex of Savarkar in Muslim areas, saying they will put up Savarkar's pictures in Ganesha mantaps.

It may be recalled that BJP National General Secretary CT Ravi and former DyCM K S Eshwarappa had on Wednesday reacted angrily to former CM Siddaramaiah's statement that they should not put up a photograph of Savarkar in Muslim-dominated areas. Shivamogga, Chikkamagaluru and coastal Udupi and Dakshina Kannada form the most communally sensitive region in the state.

Meanwhile, Siddaramaiah, who was attacked with eggs in Kodagu, was warned that there would be challenges in Kodagu where the sentiment has not exactly been pro-Congress since the time of Tipu Jayanti. Congress spokesman Srikant Murthy told TNIE, "We had some information that the RSS would target Siddaramaiah during his Kodagu visit. They will try to target Siddaramaiah, more so after the success of the Davanagere function."

Party draws up 2023 poll roadmap

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@ Bengaluru

THE BJP on Thursday held its state office-bearers' meeting to discuss the strategy for the 2023 polls, and resolved to first focus on assembly constituencies in which the party is weak.

Soon after the State Executive Committee meeting, slated to be held on September 10 and 11 in Bengaluru, BJP state chief Nalinkumar Kateel and Chief Minister Basavaraj Bommai will tour the state to cover 50 assembly seats each, where the party has no MLAs. Following a roadmap drawn up, the strategy is to take along the party rank and file, and gain sympathisers to win at least 145 seats.

BJP General Secretary incharge of Karnataka Arun Singh, National General Secretary(Organisation) B L Santhosh and State General Secretary Rajesh Kuntur suggested to district chiefs and leaders in charge of the region to prepare the ground. They have been advised to embark on a 15-day tour and 'energise' booths with at least 50 more voters. They also grilled some district chiefs for not being proactive in organising the party at the booth level.

It was also resolved that party workers should focus on reaching development works of the Bommai and Narendra Modi governments to the people. The meeting condemned the Congress, saying it has been indulging in vote-bank politics by insulting freedom fighter Veer Savarkar, to appease a community.

The much-awaited 'Janothsava' events will be held between the first week of September and mid-October at seven select places, starting from Doddaballapur, where the launch was cancelled on July 28, following the death of BJPYM leader Praveen Nettaru in Sullia. BJPYM state chief, and presidents of the SC, ST and Women's Wing also took part in the meeting. Singh might have also discussed the BBMP polls with Bommai, a source said.

BJP leader submits plea to install Savarkar's bust

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@ Udupi

A day after garlanding the effigy of VD Savarkar at Brahmagiri Circle in Udupi on Wednesday, the BJP national general secretary of backward classes morcha Yashpal Suvarna on Thursday submitted a memorandum to Udupi CMC commissioner Uday Shetty to erect Savarkar's bust at the same place. Suvarna had on Wednesday said that he will make sure that Savarkar's bust is installed at the circle after a PFI member Mohammed Zuraiz from Udupi filed a police complaint objecting to the cutout at Brahmagiri circle in Ajjarakad ward of Udupi city on August 15. The police have stepped up the security after a standoff between warring groups.

Shetty said that CMC has no such proposal to install any bust in the city at present. Sources said that even if any bust has to be installed in the city, a resolution has to be passed in the general body meeting of Udupi CMC, after which the police have to issue a no objection certificate (NOC). Police sources told TNIE that it is unlikely that permission will be given the bust as it would lead to unnecessary tussle.

Time to follow Kempegowda's selfless service: DKS

@ Hiriyur

TERMING Nadaprabhu Kempegowda as one of the greatest personalities who gave Bengaluru its identity, KPCC president DK Shivakumar on Thursday said that it was because of his futuristic vision that the city is world class.

Addressing the public after inaugurating the Kempegowda Jayanthi programme in the city, he said that the time has come to revisit the selfless service of Kempegowda.

Hailing the contribution of the Vokkaligas in the development of Karnataka, he said that former CM Kengal Hanumanthaiah built the Vidhana Soudha, SM Krishna transformed the sleepy Bengaluru into a modern city by making it the technological hub and the Silicon Valley of India.

Recalling the statement of former Prime Minister Atal Bihari Vajpayee, Shivakumar said, "It was the former PM who said that earlier the world leaders and visitors first came to New Delhi, however, after SM Krishna's developmental agenda, the foreign dignitaries have started coming to Bengaluru. This transformation was possible because of the founding father of the city, Kempegowda."

He also called upon the Vokkaligas to unite in nurturing the future leaders to take the state forward.

Regarding reservation for the Vokkaliga community, he said, "I, along with former CM HD Kumaraswamy, will raise the issue of reservation on the right platform, and get it redressed." "During my difficult times, you stood by me and in future also I am expecting you to stand by me in future," he said.

Wakf pitches for all festivals, namaz in schools

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@ Bengaluru

AS the debate over hijab in schools is yet to settle down, Education Minister BC Nagesh has given the green signal for Ganesha Chaturthi festival in schools, terming it non-religious and an event that brings society together. It was being held in schools even before Independence, he claimed.

Following his remarks, Wakf Board Chairman Shafi Saadi has pitched for permission for Eid Milad, Friday namaz and activities related to the Christian community too.

Nagesh had earlier stated that educational institutions that had held Ganesha festivals earlier are free to do so, but at the same time said no other religious activities will be allowed. He also flatly turned down the Wakf Board's request to allow namaz or other religious activities.

Defending the claims, Shafi Saadi said that on the lines of Ganesha festival, Eid Milad and festivals of Christians should also be allowed in schools. He also pitched for a separate room for Friday namaz for Muslim students.

"I approached the Chief Minister and Education Minister. Schools and colleges have children from all religions. All should be aware of each other's religious festivals. Misconception about other religious festivals will be ironed out. If namaz is allowed, Hindu children will know about the Muslim faith, and similarly, if Ganesha festival is held, Muslim children will know about Hindu festivals. It will lead to better understanding. If anyone attempts to poison their minds, they will question them. This is my opinion," said Saadi.

Minister Shankar Patil refutes KCR's Raichur, T'gana merger claim

RAMKRISHNA BADSESHI
@ Kalaburagi

WITHIN a few hours of the tweet by KPCC Communication Wing head and Chittapura MLA Priyank Kharge, addressing the Chief Minister, said, "I was disappointed that not a single statement from you (chief minister) or anybody in the government on the claim of K Chandrashekhar Rao that people of Raichur want to merge with Telangana because of welfare schemes," Raichur district in-charge minister Shankar Patil Munenkoppa has refuted KCR claims.

Munenkoppa said over phone that he wanted to know who from Raichur had told Telangana Chief Minister about merging with Telangana. The Centre has selected Raichur and Yadgir districts as "aspiration districts" and implementation of schemes in these districts are being done speedily. Perhaps due to the welfare of Raichur district, KCR might have eyed it, he said, adding that it is unfair on the CM's part to trigger confusion. The chief minister will also issue a statement in this regard, he added.

Raichur BJP MLA Shivaraj Patil, who stirred the controversy in October last year, did a volte-face on Thursday. He told TNIE over phone that no one in Raichur wants to merge with Telangana. "We will not give an inch of our land to Telangana," he said. When he was reminded of his statement, Patil said that it was a pressure tactic to get development schemes to Raichur.

Patil said a Congress leader of Raichur is Congress party observer in Telangana, and he might have stirred politics over his statement.

On the status of implementation of welfare schemes in Raichur, Kharge said that the government is not implementing welfare schemes in Raichur, and that the Kalyana Karnataka Region is being neglected.

He told TNIE that they were also were looking for start ups to come forward and help in women empowered. He was speaking at the sidelines of the interaction session organised by the handloom and textiles department with industries, and signing of MoUs with five companies including Gokul Das Textiles. Over 100 industries participated in the event.

On the occasion, the new garment policy 2019- 24 was shared to draw more investment. "The policy is aimed at attracting investment up to Rs 10,000 crore, and create employment for over 5 lakh people and offering special benefits to women working in the garment and industrial sector," Munenakoppa said.

He added that with the new policy, 544 MSME units have started functioning in Karnataka, and Rs 745 crore has already been invested in various districts. Also, 64,000 people have been trained and provided jobs. Further, Rs 1,060 crore has been invested for mega projects and these units would generate 17,300 jobs.

"The aim is to make Karnataka known as the garment capital of India. State is providing 20 per cent of the clothes manufactured in India. Karnataka plays a major role in exporting raw materials. Under this policy, by increasing the subsidy from 40 per cent, more industries should come and set up units here. More focus will be given to the Kalyana Karnataka region," the minister said, adding that the policy is industry-friendly.

It offers up to 100 per cent support price and discounts.

He said while garment units have started in Shivamogga and Hassan districts, units in Chamrajanagar and Ramanagara districts will also start on the same lines. He asserted that the government is developing textile parks and those who come up to develop these will be given up to 40 per cent or Rs 40 crore, the highest under SPV model.

NO END TO AIADMK WAR

EPS junks OPS call for unity, moves HC again

T MURUGANANDHAM @Chennai

BUOYED by a favourable verdict from the Madras High Court, embattled AIADMK leader O Panneerselvam on Thursday extended an invitation to "dear brother" Palaniswami to forget the past and join hands to work together in the interest of the party, but arch-rival EPS rejected the overtures and blamed OPS for the AIADMK's defeat at the hands of DMK in the 2021 Assembly elections.

Significantly, Panneerselvam said his call for unity would apply to all including VK Sasikala and TTV Dhinakaran who worked for the growth of the party during MG Ramachandran and J Jayalalithaa period.

EPS, however, said none of the AIADMK functionaries, including himself, can work with a person who broke open the party headquarters with the help of rowdies and goondas and stole important documents. The former CM also filed an appeal before the Madras High Court against the single judge order on Thursday and the court has agreed to hear the appeal on Monday (August 22).

In his appeal, Palaniswami said he cannot work with OPS and the HC had clearly transgressed into the domain of internal party management.

"The Learned Judge, after having noted that disputes between me and Panneerselvam have caused severe difficulties to partymen and functioning of the party, has ordered that decisions can be taken by them jointly when the majority has decided otherwise. Such a contradictory finding is not only erroneous but is also against the bylaws of the party," EPS said in his affidavit.

Bhim in 'Savarna' attire, book cover sparks row

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE @ T'Puram

TO what extent can creative freedom venture? Even as bigger debates on freedom of expression gain momentum in the wake of the recent attack on Salman Rushdie, Kerala's cultural milieu is caught up in another debate on casteist politics. It's all over the cover page of 'Malayali Memorial', a work by short story writer Unni R, that depicts B R Ambedkar as an upper caste Hindu.

The debate has gained special significance as it comes at a time when Hindutva politics is making inroads into Kerala's literary and cultural realms. The cover page of the book, brought out by DC Books, portrays Ambedkar wearing a Kasavu dhothi and shirt and seated in the backdrop of a feudal house.

The cover page, not surprisingly, kicked up a row on social media too, as a section feels that there is a deliberate attempt by upper caste Nairs to appropriate Ambedkar's legacy. Some others, however, term it as a mere marketing strategy to attract readers.

Dalit thinker and activist Sunny M Kapikad sensed a conspiracy to capture the market by creating a controversy. Kapikad went on to term it as a 'Savarna invasion' on Ambedkar's identity. "Such a picture of Ambedkar wearing an upper caste attire, looking like a Nair, has never been part of the life of Ambedkar. Whatever he had tried to resist during his lifetime, is now being forcibly imposed on him. In effect, it amounts to insulting him," he said.

However, writer Unny said "the critics should first read the story, 'Malayali Memorial'. Only then will they understand the relevance of the cover image. I heard someone has even called for a boycott of the book. Are they aware of what Ambedkar meant when he used the term solidarity?"

Naxal leader wants to be in K'taka jail, court says no

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE @ Udupi

PRINCIPAL Civil Judge, (Junior Division), Kundapur, Dhanesh Mugal has rejected naxal leader B G Krishnamurthy's plea to be housed in any of the jail in Karnataka instead of shifting him to Thrissur jail in Kerala.

As a result, he was shifted to a jail in Hiriyadka in Udupi on Wednesday evening and he was taken to a jail in Thrissur on Thursday. Krishnamurthy pleaded that out of four cases registered against him in Kerala, he had obtained bail in one case. During the trial in the remaining three cases, Krishnamurthy said he would be able to go and present himself before the court in Kerala by being in Karnataka jail. As there are more cases registered against him in Karnataka, he said he wanted to be housed in any of the jails in Karnataka.

The judge also transferred the trial of two naxal leaders B G Krishnamurthy and Savithri (alias Rejitha), of the proscribed CPI (Maoist) who were arrested by the Anti-terrorism Squad from Wayanad, Kerala, on November 9, 2021 to Additional District and Sessions Court, Kundapur.

There are six cases against the duo at Shankaranarayana police station and one at Kollur police station (Udupi district) and the chargesheet in connection with all seven cases was filed before the court on Wednesday.

The two leaders face charges of spreading Maoist ideology, possession of weapons, weapon training and unlawful assembly to launch an armed agitation. Krishnamurthy known as BGK among Maoists is from Sringeri and was reportedly the secretary of the Maoists' Western Ghats special zonal committee. Savithri is from Kalasa and was associated with Kabani Dalam.

A farmer, Keshava Yadiyala was killed at Hallihole near Kundapur on December 7, 2008. This incident had happened in the Shankaranarayana police station limits in Udupi district. Police from Kundapur sub-division had taken the duo into their custody on May 10 and had interrogated them in this regard. After 10 days of interrogation, they were sent to jail in Thrissur.

RESPECT FOR WOMEN A SHAM, VIOLENCE IS REALITY

Gender-based violence exists on a spectrum rooted in the same attitude and view of women: as lesser than males. It is a fallacy to believe this violence is a fault of individuals when it is enmeshed in the DNA of a patriarchal society and reproduced even though the mechanisms of organisations or State entities should consciously counteract misogyny. Yet, in just the past few days, at least two incidents have revealed that too much of what is spoken of women's rights and empowerment is lip service. Respecting women is a mantra that elected leaders recite even as the actions of those around them undermine their words.

Just days ago, 11 men convicted of gangraping Bilkis Bano during the 2002 Gujarat riots were released prematurely. Leaving aside the legal intricacies of how or why these convicts were released, it is how their release was celebrated by the organisation to which they are affiliated that gives the lie to the mantra. Rape in times of conflict has been understood as a weapon to humiliate, dominate and instil fear in a community. The conviction of the accused was a victory for Bano, her community, and the country at large as it established that all could access justice. The glee at their premature release is an instance of social entities undercutting the justice delivered by the State. Worse, it reiterates the message of fear and humiliation to the minority community while asserting women's bodies may be brutalised for political and communal reasons with approbation.

An example of how the mechanism that exists to serve justice may dis-serve it is seen in a Kerala court's order giving bail to a man accused of sexual harassment. While bail should be the rule rather than the exception in most cases, the judge not only allowed the defence to produce photographs of the victim in the clothes she wore at the time but went further to say there could be no sexual harassment if the victim was wearing provocative clothes. The takeaway from both these instances is that women in India are often not even seen as real people equal to their male counterparts. Empty exhortations to respect women are meaningless when they are endlessly dehumanised by society and the State.

SCIENTISTS CENSOR BIG-BANG NAYSAYERS

There is much resentment among a section of astronomers and astrophysicists globally over science journals and websites rejecting their research questioning the Big Bang theory. The theory suggests that the universe, as we know it, was born out of a massive explosion from a microscopic, but highly dense point in a vacuum—called 'Singularity'—about 13.8 billion years ago. From the 1960s onwards, some astronomers and astrophysicists have questioned the credibility of the Big Bang theory and the expanding universe model. Their research, based on scientific reasoning, suggests that the universe is not expanding. A rejected paper on which Prof Sisir Roy of Bengaluru-based National Institute of Advanced Studies worked, indicates that the data from the galaxy-quasar pair confirmed the redshift periodicity, which counters the Big Bang theory and goes against the expanding model of the universe. American astronomer Prof Halton Arp observed this first in the 1960s. According to the Big Bang hypothesis, quasars are considered objects at farthest distances than the galaxies, suggesting universal expansion.

The opposition to anti-Big Bang theorists is through rejections of their papers. At least 24 astronomers and astrophysicists from 10 countries, including reputed astrophysicist Jayant V Narlikar of Inter-University Centre for Astronomy and Astrophysics, Prof Sisir Roy, and Prof Amitabha Ghosh of Indian National Science Academy (INSA)—protested the censorship of papers critical of the Big Bang hypothesis by the Cornell University's open pre-print website arXiv. Such censorship only obstructs science.

This is reminiscent of the Church's opposition to the heliocentric theory and the treatment meted out to Copernicus and Galileo in the 15th and 17th centuries, respectively, for suggesting that the Earth goes around the Sun and not vice-versa. Shockingly, the opposition to the Big Bang theory critiques is not from the Church, but scientists themselves. So, Arp's statement needs to be replayed: "Of course, if one ignores contradictory observations, one can claim to have an 'elegant' or 'robust' theory. But it isn't science."

BANGLADESH GRAPPLES WITH ECONOMIC STRESS

Bangladesh's economic growth has run into rough weather, belying its reputation as the fastest growing economy in Asia. It received accolades for its successful economic growth story with 7–8% GDP in the pre-Covid era. The GDP rose to USD 416 billion, and per capita GDP exceeded that of India. The country is now struggling to manage the damage caused by the double whammy of the continuing Covid pandemic and the Ukraine War. External factors apart, domestic factors have also contributed to the economic crisis. With Bangladesh seeking external multilateral financial support, three of India's neighbours are mired in deep economic turbulence.

Bangladesh joins Sri Lanka and Pakistan in seeking bailouts from the IMF. It is seeking a loan of USD 4.5 billion from the IMF, accompanied by economic belt-tightening measures to cut back foreign exchange expenditure.

The IMF's readiness to help Bangladesh with a bailout package over the next three years is a clear acknowledgement of the country's economic crisis. Bangladesh has also knocked on the door of the World Bank for a billion-dollar loan, and USD 2.5–3 billion have been sought from other multilateral institutions and donor nations like Japan.

Bangladesh is an energy and food importer. Agriculture depends on imported fertilisers, whose cost has escalated because both Russia and Ukraine are also fertiliser exporters. Fuel prices have been raised by 50% to reduce the subsidy burden on the treasury. Other austerity measures include power rationing, cutting back on foreign travel by government officials, limiting the purchase of government vehicles and ban on non-essential and luxury items. The fuel price rise will stoke the fire of inflation, running at over 7% since July this year.

In August this year, Bangladesh's foreign exchange reserves had come down from an all-time high of USD 48 billion to USD 45 billion and then to USD 39 billion, which can sustain 5-months of imports. The government has pleaded that its hands are tied, and it had no other option.

The move also anticipates the expected conditions to be applied by the IMF for extending any loan. The opposition, already attacking the government on various issues before the general election next year, has slammed the government for the fuel price rise. The frustrated opposition has found the economic crisis a new peg to attack the government.

High oil and food prices have led to a slide in foreign exchange reserves, as import bills have risen. Most analysts in Bangladesh believe that the country's economic crisis may not end soon. The slowdown in the global economy has impacted Bangladesh's export markets. 80% of Bangladesh's exports are Ready Made Garments [RMG], and depressed consumer demand in the developed and developing economies has seen far fewer orders for RMG companies. Remittances from Bangladeshis working abroad [NRBs] have also fallen, depleting foreign reserves. Remittance inflows peaked at USD 24.77 billion and have now fallen to USD 21 billion. The Bangladeshi Taka [BDT] fell sharply against the US dollar, falling to BDT 112 per dollar in the market. Bangladesh's trade deficit is on the rising curve. Though exports have touched USD 52 billion, imports have also risen, leaving a deficit of USD 33 billion.

Compounding these economic stress factors is Bangladesh's poor record in controlling trade-based money laundering. An estimated USD 7 billion is leaving Bangladesh due to over-invoicing of imports and under-invoicing of exports. According to the Swiss National Bank, Bangladeshi nationals have stashed away around USD 917 billion in Swiss banks. Debt servicing has added an increasing burden on the treasury. Foreign debt worth USD 90 billion has accumulated on loans taken for large infrastructure projects.

Around USD 43 billion is owed to China, Japan and Russia. Some major infrastructure projects are being shelved. The country's finance minister has warned that BRI infrastructure loans from China require far more scrutiny to establish their financial feasibility.

Austerity measures have led to public protests and allegations of mismanagement and corruption against the government. Critics have blamed the government and the ruling Awami League [AL] for increasing dependence on fuel imports for power plants to increase power production and not investing in oil and gas exploration.

While Bangladesh has celebrated the opening of the bridge on the Padma river and claimed it is self-financed, several billions of dollars have been borrowed from major development partners and multilateral institutions for budgetary support.

The economic picture was not as rosy as proclaimed by the government. Inflated cost of infrastructure projects, non-performing assets and loan defaults have caused a crisis in the banking sector, mainly owing to crony capitalism. Vanity projects like the Roopur Nuclear Power Plant and mega projects like the Dhaka Metro Rail, Karnaphuli Tunnel and several other projects have put pressure on the country's finances, as costs have soared because of overpricing and corruption.

The public alert sounded by Bangladesh's finance minister about China's BRI debt-trap policy towards developing and less developed countries is a significant comment on China's role in capturing physical assets like the Hambantota Port in Sri Lanka via financing fiscally unsustainable vanity projects that are obtained through high-level political bribery. The widespread public protests in Sri Lanka, which forced its president to flee the country, have sent shock waves across the region. India's neighbours, barring Bhutan, have all joined China's BRI programme, and the Sri Lankan case is a lesson for all these countries.

The economic crisis in India's neighbourhood highlights the dangers of playing the "China Card" against India. China fully understands this sentiment and, with its chequebook diplomacy, has successfully tempted these countries to walk into the current economic crisis. China's geopolitical interest in pushing the BRI and debt-trap diplomacy is designed to contain India's influence and promote China's clout in India's neighbourhood, apart from increasing its strategic footprint in the Indian Ocean Region.

INDIA@100: WORLD'S INNOVATION CAPITAL

G KRISHNA KUMAR

Bengaluru-based ICT professional and columnist

In his Independence Day address, Prime Minister Narendra Modi called for India to become a leader in Innovation. His "Jai Anusandhan" (Hail Innovation) slogan is timely.

India significantly lags behind the world's top economies in Innovation/Inventions and Intellectual Property Rights (IPRs)—including patents, trademarks, trade secrets and copyrights. While India's ranking in the Global Innovation Index has improved significantly from 81 in 2015–16 to 46 in 2021, it is a long road ahead for India to dominate in innovation.

A recent report analysing data from the International Monetary Fund (IMF) suggests that India pays a huge amount of money to foreign entities (for using the latter's IPRs), compared to what India earns for IPRs held in India. For example: In 2021, India paid $8.6 billion and earned just $800 million. Back in 1981, the out-go was $15.1 million and earning was $0.11 million.

As India aims to be one of the top three economies in the world, we must have a multi-pronged approach to strengthen our position in Innovation and IPRs. Let us look at how India can improve its innovation and invention capabilities through patents.

For the uninitiated, a patent is defined by WIPO (World Intellectual Property Organisation) as an exclusive right granted for an invention, which is a product or a process that provides, in general, a new way of doing something or offers a new technical solution to a problem. Patents are territorial rights—this means that the patents are to be filed in each country where the inventor seeks patent protection. World bodies (like the Paris Convention and Patent Cooperation Treaty, etc.) assist inventors in filing patents in other countries.

The Indian patent system dates way back to the 1856 Act on the protection of inventions. It has undergone several modifications and enhancements post-independence and more so since 1999.

Over the past decade, the government's 'Make in India', 'Start-up India', 'Digital India', 'Atal Innovation Mission', 'Skill India' and the 'NIPAM' (National IP Awareness Mission) have certainly helped in spurring innovation in the country. To encourage startups to file more patents, the government provides incentives—startups recognised under the Startup India programme get up to 80% rebate on patent filings.

There are several examples of Indians driving innovation. For example, a Maharashtra-based company has a patented tamper-proof painting technology that can be applied on uneven and rough surfaces. This technology would have global demand.

Patent filing has significantly increased over the past decade. For example, 58,502 patents were filed in 2020–21, compared to 39,400 patents filed in 2010–11. Nearly 28,391 patents were granted in India in 2020–21 compared to 7,509 in 2010–11.

However, when we look at the global scenario, 5.3 lakh patents were granted in China, while 3.52 lakh were granted in the USA, 1.7 lakh were granted in Japan, and South Korea granted 1.35 lakh patents. We are significantly lagging behind these leading economies. The main issue is India's low Research and Development spending of 0.7% of GDP. In comparison, the USA spends 3%, Israel spends 4.5% and even China spends 2.6% of GDP.

It is heartening to see the share of Indian residents in total applications has increased to 40% in 2020–21 from 20% in 2010–11. It is encouraging to see academic institutions filing over 2,500 patents during the last year, spread across Information Technology, Biotechnology, Ayurveda and Basic Sciences.

India fares poorly on time taken for patent granting. The time taken in India is about 42 months. This has dropped significantly from 64 months in 2017. However, this is way below the global benchmark. USA, China, South Korea and Japan take about 15–20 months to grant patents.

The delays can be attributed to the number of patent examiners in India. India has 615 examiners compared to 8,132 in the USA and 13,704 in China.The whole process of patenting involves three critical aspects—the inventors, the patent agents and the examiners granting the patents.

Firstly, we need to create a research mindset among the students in schools and colleges. We need to create an environment that can aid in producing subject matter experts who are equipped with multidisciplinary skills.

The NEP 2020's vision for encouraging entrepreneurship and innovation can help if implemented effectively through strong feedback and a continuous improvement mechanism. Much more awareness must be created among the students and the youth in the country. The NEP's focus on building multidisciplinary skills can encourage students to think about research and innovation instead of just focusing on standard jobs.

The inventors approach patent agents for filing. The patent agents need to pass the patent agent examination conducted by the Indian government to qualify for patent filing.

Reports suggest that India has about 4,000 registered patent agents. In contrast, the USA has about 50,000 agents. The number of patent filings per agent is about 14 in India compared to about 7 in the USA. We need to increase the number of patent agents significantly. This can be done by increasing awareness about the role of patent agents. These patent agents must hold a degree in Science and Technology to appear for the patent agent exam. Here again, multi skilled personnel will have a great opportunity to excel.

Finally, India is lagging significantly behind its global peers with regard to the ratio of patent examiners to the patents filed. Government initiatives to increase the intake will certainly help in reducing the gap. Regular awareness campaigns and celebration of success stories will motivate professionals to become patent agents or patent examiners. India should learn from the European Patent Office's (EPO) strategy to attract talent as patent examiners.

Overall, we have an excellent opportunity for the innovation-led ecosystem to work together and enable an efficient patent management system in the country. Such actions would ensure India can produce some of the best-patented inventions in the world before we celebrate India@100.

Yogi, Nitin excluded

The exclusion of Nitin Gadkari from and non-inclusion of Yogi Adityanath in the BJP parliamentary board, the highest decision-making body of the party, came as a rude shock. One gets an impression that the party leadership—much like the Congress—does not want to encourage strong leaders who are seen as potential threats to the current leadership. Essentially, this does not augur well either for the party or democracy in the long run.

Shooing away the 'C'

Apropos of India needs to address the big fat 'C' in the room (August 18). India's progress constantly hits roadblocks owing to corruption. As has been rightly pointed out, winning this war is of utmost importance. But will investigation agencies be given a free hand to root out corruption?

Dress that 'provokes'

Apropos of Judge cites woman's 'provocative dressing' to give harassment accused bail, courts row (August 18). For the court to observe that a 74-year-old disabled man could not have made the woman sit on his lap just makes one wonder and pose several questions. Is sexual harassment legal if provoked? Has a limit been decided for a woman's attire beyond which it is supposed to invite crimes? What age is too old for sexual intents?

Tipu vs Savarkar

This is with reference to the current conflict between the communities in Shivamogga over Tipu Sultan and Veer Savarkar. The Congress may support Tipu Sultan, but their hate for Savarkar is also politically motivated. After all, in 1980, Indira Gandhi herself wrote a letter to Pandit Bakhle, saying, "Veer Savarkar's daring defiance of the British Government has its own importance in the annals of our Freedom movement." For the nation to move forward, Congress needs to stop its politics of appeasement and hatred.

Sri Aurobindo's role

This is with reference to the column Bhawani Mandir revisited: Sri Aurobindo & Swaraj (August 17). Not many may know that Sri Aurobindo was also actively involved in the freedom movement against the British, but this column reveals it beautifully. Schools should include his name and work in textbooks. By doing this, the educational institutions will break a set pattern in syllabi and enlighten young minds.

‘Covid increases risk of brain fog, dementia’

The new study conducted by Lancet notes an increased risk of anxiety and depression in adult patients

KAVITA BAJELI-DATT @ New Delhi

PEOPLE who had Covid-19 are at an increased risk of developing some neurological and psychiatric conditions, including psychosis, dementia, brain fog and seizures, for as long as two years as compared to those who had other respiratory infections, said a study published in The Lancet Psychiatry journal.

The researchers from the University of Oxford, UK, said that children were more likely to be diagnosed with some conditions, including seizures and psychotic disorders. But the likelihood of most diagnoses after Covid-19 was lower than in adults. The study, which shed more light on the long-term mental health problems due to Covid-19, also noted an increased risk of anxiety and depression in adults, but it subsided within two months of Covid-19 infection.

The researchers, who analysed electronic health records from nearly 1.3 million people diagnosed with Covid-19 over two years, mainly in the US, and then compared them with a closely-matched group of 1.25 million people who had a different respiratory infection, said that the Delta variant was associated with more disorders than the Alpha variant while Omicron was linked with similar neurological and psychiatric risks as Delta.

“In addition to confirming previous findings that COVID-19 can increase the risk for some neurological and psychiatric conditions in the first six months after infection, this study suggests that some of these increased risks can last for at least two years,” said Professor Paul Harrison, from the University of Oxford.

“The results have important implications for patients and health services as it suggests new cases of neurological conditions linked to COVID-19 infection are likely to occur for a considerable time after the pandemic has subsided,” Harrison, lead author of the study, said.

In adults aged 65 years and over who had Covid-19 up to two years previously, there was a higher occurrence of brain fog, dementia and psychotic disorder compared to those who once had a different respiratory infection. Adults aged 18-64 years who had Covid-19 up to two years previously had a higher risk of cognitive deficit, brain fog, and muscle disease than those with other respiratory infections up to two years.

The study also highlights the need for more research to understand why this happens after Covid-19 and what can be done to prevent or treat these conditions.

Of those with health records in the US-based TriNetX network, 1,284,437 people had a confirmed SARS-CoV-2 infection on or after January 20, 2020, and were included in the study: 185,748 children, 856,588 adults between 18 and 64 years old, and 242,101 adults over 65. These individuals were matched to an equal number of patients with another respiratory infection to act as a control group. Little change was observed in the risks of neurological and psychiatric diagnoses six months post Covid-19 just before and just after the emergence of the Alpha variant.

However, the emergence of the Delta variant was associated with significantly higher six-month risks of anxiety, cognitive deficit, epilepsy or seizures, and ischaemic strokes but a lower risk of dementia when compared to those diagnosed with Covid-19 just before the Delta wave. The risks during the Omicron wave, which saw a lower death rate, were, however, similar to those when Delta was the dominant variant. “The fact that neurological and psychiatric outcomes were similar during the delta and omicron waves indicates that the burden on the health-care system might continue even with variants that are less severe in other respects,” the study said.

Post-pandemic perils for patients

The havoc of corona pandemic is not limited to getting infections, its after effects last longer. The new Lancet study throws light on such hazards

- Covid patients are an increased risk of developing some neurological and psychiatric conditions, including psychosis, dementia, brain fog and seizures, for as long as two years
- Children were more likely to be diagnosed with some onditions, including seizures and psychotic disorders

India wants open, free and peaceful Indo-Pacific: EAM

YESHI SELI @New Delhi

INDIA envisages free, open, inclusive and peaceful Indo-Pacific built on rules-based order, said External Affairs Minister Dr S Jaishankar while delivering a lecture at Bangkok’s Chulalongkorn University today.

He was addressing researchers, scholars, think tanks and students. Jaishankar said India envisaged the Association of Southeast Asian Nations (ASEAN) to be at the centre of the Indo-Pacific. “Our ASEAN partners will surely note that our interactions with them have grown, not reduced, as a result of the Indo-Pacific.”

The minister said that Quad is the most prominent plurilateral platform that addresses contemporary challenges and opportunities. The Indo-Pacific Quadrilateral Security Dialogue, the Quad, is a strategic forum comprising India, the United States of America, Japan and Australia, which advocates a free and open Indo-Pacific. The Quad has strongly opposed any coercive, provocative or unilateral actions that seek to change the status quo and increase tensions in the area. China is engaged in territorial disputes in both the South China Sea and the East China Sea. Beijing claims sovereignty over all of the South China Sea.

Our ASEAN partners will surely note that our interactions with them have grown, not reduced, as a result of the Indo-Pacific

S JAISHANKAR, Minister for External Affairs

India and China are engaged in a border standoff in eastern Ladakh. The two countries have so far held 16 rounds of military-level talks to resolve the border row.

“We consider the Indo-Pacific as a region that extends from the eastern shores of Africa to the western shores of America. This is an increasingly seamless space that is home to more than 64% of the global population that contributes over 60% of world’s GDP. About half of the global trade happens through the maritime trade routes in this region,” Jaishankar said.

SC junks plea seeking rules for damages for wrongful incarceration

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@New Delhi

THE Supreme Court on Thursday refused to entertain two separate pleas seeking directions to the government to frame guidelines for compensation to victims of wrongful prosecution.

A bench of Justices U U Lalit and S R Bhat said the issue involves lawmaking and will create a lot of complications.

“Once we lay down guidelines, every Trial Court would be obliged to consider the issue when judgments will be rendered. We’ll be adding one more facet of the matter. Many of the acquittals are not on merits but on technical grounds and benefits of doubt,” said justice Lalit. “The nature of relief prayed for is in the realm of laying down guidelines or in the nature of the legislation. It will not be possible for this court to utilise its processes. The attention of the Union of India and relevant agencies has been invited to the case portrayed in the form of a petition. It is now left to concerned agencies or instrumentalities to take appropriate action. We, therefore, see no reason to entertain any longer. The wit petitions are disposed of,” the bench said.

Senior advocate Vijay Hansaria, appearing in the matter, submitted that there are no safeguards in case of malicious prosecution.

The top court on March 23, 2021, while issuing notice to the Centre on one of the pleas filed by advocate Ashwini Upadhyay and BJP leader Kapil Mishra, had refused to issue notices to the states and National Human Rights Commission (NHRC). Upadhyay had sought directions to the Centre, all states, and Union Territories to frame and implement guidelines to compensate victims of “wrongful prosecution” through government machinery.

India, China to take part in Vostok army drill; Pak troops to tour India

YESHI SELI @New Delhi

IN what can best be described as a diplomatic mashup, India later this month is going to attend the Vostok 2022 military exercises in Russia where Chinese Liberation Army is also likely to take part. Meanwhile, Pakistan will attend a security drill in India in October.

“China has confirmed that their troops will take part in the Vostok 2022 military exercises. India’s 75-member contingent is ready and once the dates are confirmed they too will head to Vladivostok,’’ say sources.

The Vostok drills are due to start at the end of the month (tentatively between August 30 and September 5), and will include Belarus, Mongolia and Tajikstan.

India hasn’t officially stated when the troops will leave. In 2021, India took part in the Zapad drills in Russia which included 17 countries, including China and Pakistan. Zapad means “West” in Russian. It was a military exercise conducted on Russia’s Western borders to showcase their strategic capabilities and practice operational maneuvers.

Pak Army to be part of SCO drill in Haryana

Pakistan has confirmed that it will attend the international counter-terrorism exercises in India (around October) under the Shanghai Cooperation Organisation (SCO). The counter terrorism exercises are likely to be held around October in Manesar, Haryana

Meanwhile, according to reports, the Vostok 2022 exercise will be held under the command of the chief of Russia’s general staff, Valery Gerasimov, at 13 training grounds of the Eastern Military District.

Even though India is taking part in these drills, the military standoff continues due to the built up around Line of Actual Control (LAC).

“Asian century will happen when China and India come together. At the moment, the relationship is going through an extremely difficult phase after what China did at the border,’’ said External Affairs Minister, Dr S Jaishankar, while addressing the Chulalongkorn University in Bangkok on Thursday .

Meanwhile, Pakistan has confirmed that it will attend the international counter-terrorism exercises in India (around October) under the Shanghai Cooperation Organisation (SCO). The counter terrorism exercises are likely to be held around October in Manesar, Haryana.

At the weekly briefing, Foreign Office spokesperson Asim Iftikhar confirmed Pakistan’s participation. He is reported to have said that there will be exercises under the ambit of SCO RATS (Regional Anti Terrorism Structure). India is chairing SCO RATS this year.

Pakistan and India are part of the regional body that also includes China, Russia and Central Asian Republics (CARs).

Non-locals will be BJP voters, says Mehbooba

FAYAZ WANI @Srinagar

WITH all political parties except BJP criticising inclusion of non locals in the voter list in Jammu and Kashmir Union Territory, National Conference president and Gupkar Alliance chairman Farooq Abdullah has called for an All Party Meeting (APM) on August 22 to evolve a joint strategy against the controversial move. The APM will be held on August 22 at 11 am at Abdullah’s Gupkar residence.

PDP chief and former J&K Chief Minister Mehbooba Mufti while addressing the press conference after the meeting said that now BJP’s 25 lakh voters will be added to the voter list and termed inclusion of non locals in voter list as the last “nail in the coffin of electoral democracy here”.

“The system of democracy in J&K is being suppressed by the central government as new experiments are being done by BJP here for their interest,” she said adding, “BJP is trying to destroy J&K but we should unite and save our territory”.

NC leader Tanvir Sadiq termed the move to allow non locals to vote in J&K Assembly polls as “clear-cut de-franchising” of the people of J&K.

NIA raids 4 districts in weapons drop case

FAYAZ WANI @chennai

THE National Investigation Agency (NIA) on Thursday conducted raids at multiple locations in four districts of Jammu and Kashmir in connection with dropping of arms and ammunition through drones from Pakistan at International Border (IB). The NIA sleuths assisted by J&K policemen and paramilitary CRPF men conducted raid and searches at the residence of Faisal Muneer in Jammu.

Faisal was among three persons arrested by police last month for receiving weapons dropped through drones at IB by the Pakistani drones. The NIA sleuths also conducted raids in multiple locations in the mountainous district of Doda and border districts of Kathua and Samba. The security officials said after finding it difficult to push militants and weapons into Jammu and Kashmir through the Line of Control (LoC) or IB, the Pakistani is now using drones to drop arms and ammunition near the IB in J&K.

There have been many instances when the arms consignment dropped from drones were detected and recovered. Many drones were shot down by the security force personnel and weapons and drugs were recovered from these drones.

The NIA raids came a day after police recovered a consignment of arms including 1 AK rifle with magazine and 40 rounds, one pistol star with 2 magazines and 10 9 mm pistol rounds and 2 small Chinese grenades dropped from a Pakistani drone at Toph village of Arnia district near IB in Jammu region. Police said the recovery was made on disclosure of an arrested Pakistani militant Mohammad Ali Hussain alias Qasim.

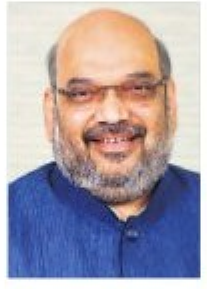
Shah hints intel shift to ‘duty to share’ mode

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE @
New Delhi

THE Centre on Thursday sought to give the first broad hint that Indian intelligence agencies must shift from a long-held culture and practice of “need to know” to “need to and duty to share” critical information related to national security among all intelligence organisations.

Speaking at the concluding day of the two-day conference of all directors-general of police and their respective state intelligence chiefs here, Union Home Minister Amit Shah indicated that while TECHINT (technical intelligence) had improved considerably, there was an urgent need to “give equal thrust to the use of HUMINT (human intelligence). The conference was held under the aegis of the Intelligence Bureau.



Claiming that the government has “achieved great success in eliminating” terrorism in Jammu and Kashmir, the “various extremist groups in the Northeast” as well as Leftwing extremism, Shah said that enacting of new laws, increased coordination with states and rise in budgetary allocation, besides the optimum use of technology had made it possible to strengthen and tighten internal security.

Pointing out that the government intends to “make good use of 5G technology to strengthen the security system”, Shah said that the DGPs conference focused on counter-terror and counter-radicalisation, the challenges faced by security agencies in dealing with Maoist overground and front organisations and the rising threat of crypto currency.

The DGPs shared information on counter-drone technology and the need to use such means to neutralise hostile unmanned aerial vehicles from Pakistan, to maintain heightened cyber and social media surveillance and to ensure protection of islands and ports.

These apart, it was felt that state police forces must prioritise their focus on the demographic changes and growing radicalisation in India’s border areas and drug trafficking.

AAP faces flak for making minor a party worker

KAVITA BAJELI-DATT @New Delhi

The National Commission for Protection of Child Rights (NCPCR) on Thursday sought legal action against the Aam Aadmi Party (AAP) for allegedly recruiting an 11-year-old boy as a party worker in Gujarat.

In a letter to the Gujarat Director General of Police (DGP), Ashish Bhatia, the NCPCR said they have received a complaint that Gopal Italia, president of AAP, Gujarat Unit, and Isudan Gadhvi, a leader of AAP, Gujarat, used a minor boy for political gains.

“It is mentioned in the complaint that the minor has been recruited as a worker in the said political party and is being used for protests and child labour for political gains,” NCPCR chairperson Priyank Kanoongo said in the letter.

“It is further mentioned in the complaint that the minor has been used by the party to influence other people further to join the party,” he said.

He said the complainant has also provided various social media links of AAP’s official handles with content posted by the minor, proving the contents of the complaint.

The child rights body said that by employing a minor, the party had violated specific provisions under the Juvenile Justice (Care and Protection of Children) Act, 2015, the Child and Adolescent Labour (Prohibition and Regulation) Act, 1986, and Article 21 of the Indian Constitution.

“The Commission thereby requests your good offices to look into the matter and have a thorough inquiry of the events and take necessary legal action. An Action Taken Report may be submitted to the Commission within three days of receipt of this letter,” Kanoongo said.

Another 'tainted' minister rocks Nitish cabinet

RJD MLA Sudhakar Singh has been allegedly involved in the rice mill scam of 2013-14

RAMASHANKAR @Patna

A day after the new Nitish Kumar government in Bihar faced flak over the induction in the cabinet of Kartikeya Kumar, who faces arrest in a kidnapping case, it's facing the heat of the Opposition again for alleged involvement of RJD MLA Sudhakar Singh, who was allotted the agriculture portfolio, in the rice mill scam of 2013-14.

Sudhakar, who is the MLA from Ramgarh in Kaimur district, is the son of RJD state chief Jagadanand Singh, who has earlier served as the irrigation minister in the Lalu-Rabri cabinet. An FIR was filed against him during the Nitish-led NDA government over alleged embezzlement of rice worth ₹11.5 crore in 2013. He was charged with not returning rice to the government against paddy grains supplied to his rice mills as per the agreement between the government and rice mill owners.

Sudhakar, however, termed the allegation baseless, saying the delay in procuring rice from mills caused losses to mill owners, farmers and also the government. "It was not a scam but policy failure and lack of infrastructure that led to revenue loss," Sudhakar said.

The controversy follows the uproar that erupted on Wednesday over an arrest warrant issued against state Law Minister Kartikeya Kumar at Bihta police station in Patna district in 2016 in a kidnapping case. The warrant was pending at Mokama police station, from where Kartikeya hails.

The case was related to an attempt to abduct realtor Rajiv Ranjan Singh. Kartikeya was supposed to depose before Danapur court on Aug. 16 but he instead took oath of office after being inducted in the council of ministers.

The induction of two 'tainted' RJD legislators as ministers has provided the Opposition an opportunity to attack the mahagathbandhan government. Ex-minister Samrat Choudhary said almost 80 per cent of the ministers in the government have criminal records or face corruption charges.

"What sort of government is this, with 82% tainted ministers?," he said, citing a report by Association of Democratic Reforms released this week.

Lalu says Nitish is 'guardian of all'

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE @Patna

LAUGHTER and camaraderie marked the first meeting of RJD chief Lalu Prasad and Bihar Chief Minister Nitish Kumar following the formation of the mahagathbandhan government in Bihar. Nitish met Lalu within half an hour of the latter's arrival in the city, and was greeted with a beaming RJD patriarch, who advised Nitish in his native language, Bhojpuri, not to go "anywhere anymore" and hailed him as the "guardian of all."

Lalu also told Nitish, "You have to move ahead by taking them along." The meeting, which lasted for nearly 45 minutes, also saw Lalu telling Nitish and his son Tejashwi, now the deputy CM, to focus on development.

"Make such preparations for the 2024 Lok Sabha election that BJP is completely wiped out from Bihar," Lalu said.

Talking about the meeting, Nitish said, "We are together. We have been together for years. We have an old relationship."

The two senior leaders also discussed the situation arising due to an arrest warrant pending against RJD leader Kartikeya Kumar. Kartikeya also met Lalu and sought his blessings. On Wednesday, the RJD chief said the allegations against Kartikeya are baseless.

BJP leader stirs storm with casteist remarks

FIR lodged against Lodhi

A video in which Lodhi can be seen making these remarks went viral on Thursday, after which Praveen Mishra, a Brahmin leader of BJP's youth wing, lodged an FIR against Lodhi at Rannod. The BJP promptly called Lodhi to Bhopal for an explanation

The Brahmins were fooling people in the name of offering religious rituals, and grabbing money and other things from commoners. They prosper on our money

Pritam Singh Lodhi, BJP leader

ANURAAG SINGH @Bhopal

A political row has erupted in Madhya Pradesh following controversial statements made by a BJP leader, belonging to the OBC Lodhi caste, against the Brahmins.

The issue surfaced when Pritam Singh Lodhi, while addressing a students' function to mark the birth anniversary of warrior queen Avantibai Lodhi, slammed people belonging to the Brahmin caste, saying, "The Brahmins were fooling people in the name of offering religious rituals and prayers, and grabbing money and other things from commoners. They (Brahmins) are prospering on our money and resources. Seeing beautiful women from good families, they (Brahmins) want to have food at these women's homes. They want young women seated in the front row and make elderly women sit at the back." The event took place at Kharaih village in Rannod area of Shivpuri district on Wednesday.

A video in which Lodhi can be seen making these remarks went viral on Thursday, after which Praveen Mishra, a Brahmin leader of BJP's youth wing, lodged an FIR against Lodhi at Rannod.

The BJP promptly went into damage control mode and called Lodhi to Bhopal for an explanation, sources said.

The Congress was quick to target the ruling party and the Shivraj Singh government.

"The BJP leader's public statement about the Brahmins is part of his party's well-planned conspiracy against the Brahmins and other general category people. In November 2021, the ruling party's national general secretary in-charge for Madhya Pradesh, P Murlidhar Rao, had said in Bhopal that Brahmins and Baniyas were in his pockets. What Lodhi has stated on Wednesday is the extension of Rao's earlier statements," state Congress's media wing head, KK Mishra, said.

A Brahmin leader of the Congress, Mishra questioned why the Brahmin leaders of BJP, such as VD Sharma, Gopal Bhargava and Narottam Mishra, were silent over Lodhi's statements.

"The entire Brahmin caste should unite against BJP, else days aren't far when we will be assaulted by these people," Mishra said while demanding a apology from the party.

Lodhi had contested the last two assembly polls against Congress veteran KP Singh 'Kakkaju', from Pichhore. In the 2018 polls, he lost by a narrow margin of about 2,500 votes. He is already accused in at least 37 criminal cases, including four attempt-to-murder and two murder cases.

Though the general category voters constitute only 10-12 per cent of the voters in MP, they hold a sway in several districts and regions.

RTO staff couple's assets 650% over real income

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@Bhopal

SEARCHES by the Economic Offence Wing (EOW) sleuths at the residential premises of an assistant regional transport officer (ARTO) and his regional transport officer (RTO) office clerk wife in Madhya Pradesh's Jabalpur district have led to a palatial house which resembles a 5-star tourist resort.

The triple-storeyed house of Jabalpur ARTO Santosh Pal and his RTO office clerk wife Rekha Pal located at Shatabdipuram Colony in Jabalpur, had uninvited guests on Wednesday night.

The house has a swimming pool, a mini theatre, a conference hall, and a separate high end-office for the RTO staffer couple. The house, according EOW sources, was valued at around ₹4 crore.

The EOW teams from Jabalpur and Sagar districts also raided the couple's two other houses in Jabalpur. They recovered ₹16 lakh cash, high-end jewellery, besides two luxury vehicles and documents pertaining to couple's investments elsewhere.

The search which continued on Thursday as well, also led to disclosure about the couple owning four more houses in Jabalpur city and a farmhouse spread over 1.4 acres in Deekhakheda village of the district.

"We've seized several other documents from the premises of the RTO office staffer couple, only after their scrutiny, the actual value of these assets would be ascertained," SP-EOW Devendra Singh Rajput said.

As per a statement by the EOW, a case has been filed against the couple under the Prevention of Corruption Act 1988. "Initial probe suggests that the assets held by the couple could be 650% more than the income generated through their authentic sources," the EOW statement said.

MAMATA ASKS MINISTERS TO AVOID BEACON LIGHTS

PRANAB MONDAL @Kolkata

IN a move to redeem the Trinamool Congress party's image damaged by the arrest of two veteran leaders, CM Mamata Banerjee has asked all ministers to avoid beacon lights atop their vehicles and police pilot cars while travelling.

A Prevention of Money Laundering Act (PMLA) court in Kolkata on Thursday extended the judicial custody of former minister Partha Chatterjee and his close associate Arpita Mukherjee until August 31 in the School Service Commission (SSC) recruitment scam case.

On the other hand, another party strongman Anubrata Mondal is in CBI custody until Aug 20 in a cattle smuggling case.

"Given the way BJP is out to malign our party, we will have to be careful. No minister should use red beacons on their vehicle and pilot cars even when they are going to or coming from districts,'' Mamata reportedly said in a cabinet meeting on Thursday. She said the party's clean image was her priority.

"The recovery of cash amounting to Rs 49.8 crore from two apartments owned by Chatterjee's aide and the visuals of the haul have led people to question us. It has damaged our party image and the CM's assertion portraying the TMC as a symbol of honesty," said a senior party leader.

Chatterjee and his aide Arpita were produced in a Kolkata court on Thursday and the magistrate rejected their bail plea, remanding them in judicial custody for 14 days.

Asked about his involvement in the alleged scam, Chatterjee, while leaving the court, said, "No one will be spared.''

Chatterjee's comment is said to be significant as it pointed towards the involvement of more people in the party in the alleged scam. "It appears Chatterjee, a former education minister, has started responding to allegations against him during the interrogation by the Enforcement Directorate officials,'' said another TMC leader.

While Chatterjee was removed from Mamata's cabinet and suspended from the party, the Bengal chief minister decided to stand with Mondal, who is known for his organisational skills.

Lambasting the BJP-led Centre, Mamata accused the CBI of going on a rampage at Mondal's house on the day of his arrest and raised questions about his culpability.

HC EXTENDS PARTHA'S JUDICIAL REMAND

Jharkhand: Exorcists under scanner to check witch-hunting incidents

MUKESH RANJAN @Ranchi

IN a first of its kind initiative, Jharkhand police have chalked out a plan of action to check incidents of witch-hunting, under which, local 'Ojha-Guni'(exorcists) are being identified and made to furnish personal bonds. Police officials are not only keeping a close eye on them, but also calling them to the police stations and warning them not to spread superstition or strict action will be taken against them.

In addition to that, local SP s have been appointed as nodal officers, asking them to identify vulnerable areas and review the situation regularly

According to police, profiles of every such people are being prepared and kept in the police stations so that quick action could be taken against them. Starting from Ranchi, nearly 75 such exorcists from Chanho, Mandar, McCluskieganj, Narkopi, Dasam, Tamar, Namkom, Angara and Tupudana have been identified.

"It has been observed that it is the exorcists who pick any particular person claiming that they are the reason behind anybody's death, illness, sufferings or even financial problems in the village. Such people are even killed by the villagers," said Naushad Alam, Rural Superintendent of Police, Ranchi.

"Interestingly, it was seen that such incidents have significantly reduced since we have started the drive," said the SP.

The SP said that help from the common people, local mukhiyas, chaukidars and NGOs are also being taken to identify such people.

Senior police officials said that the objective behind furnishing personal bonds by local 'Pahans' is aimed at mounting moral pressure on them.

The objective behind making 'Pahans' furnish personal bonds is to mount moral pressure on them so that they inform the local administration as soon as they come across the possibility of any such incident taking place in their surroundings," said a senior police official at police headquarters.

Legal experts also asserted that after furnishing the personal bond, exorcists will be given some sort of moral responsibility that no such incident will take place in their knowledge.

According to the data available with Jharkhand police, 259 people got killed on suspicion of practising black magic in the last six years and 4,680 cases were lodged in different police stations all over the state.

Witch hunting, a recurring social evil in Jharkhand, took 27 lives in 2019, while 26 and 41 people were killed in 2018 in 2017, respectively.

Punjab: Report soon on Ansari's 'VVIP' jail stay

HARPREET BAJWA @Chandigarh

WAS UP's controversial politician Mukhtar Ansari given VVIP treatment when he was lodged in the Rupnagar jail in Punjab for about two years since 2019? An AAP government-initiated probe report is likely to be out soon.

Sources said a senior police officer is heading the investigation and that he is vetting the final report before handing the findings to Chief Minister Bhangwant Mann.

There are allegations that Ansari received 'VVIP' treatment in prison during the previous Congress government. He reportedly stayed away from the prison barrack and lived in a residential accommodation permissible to a jail official within the prison compound.

The facilities allegedly extended to him included an air-conditioner and fridge besides home-cooked food. "All these allegations are being probed,'' said a senior officer.

The role of a senior retired IPS officer and a former state minister could be under the scanner. "These were the officers responsible for facilitating the VVIP treatment to Ansari,'' said an official.

Sources said a jail official kept himself off the case after allegedly receiving threats when he tried to enforce the rules. "The official has started getting fresh threats that he should 'keep quiet' as the probe is going on," said a source.

Punjab Jail Minister Harjot Singh Bains said Ansari did enjoy VVIP treatment. "Limits were crossed. More revelations will be made in the inquiry report and action will follow,'' said Bains.

During a debate in the Assembly in June, Bains had accused the previous Congress government of providing VVIP treatment to Ansari. The charge led to heated exchanges between him and the leader of opposition Partap Singh Bajwa.

Ansari's custody was handed to the Uttar Pradesh Police last year and he was transferred to UP's Banda prison. Ansari had been lodged in the Rupnagar jail since January 2019 in a case related to extortion. Earlier, the Supreme Court had directed the Punjab government to hand over Ansari's custody to the UP police, rejecting the medical grounds on which he was sought to remain in the Punjab jail.

NEW YORK

A top executive at former President Donald Trump's family business pleaded guilty on Thursday to evading taxes in a deal with prosecutors that could make him a star witness against the company at a trial this fall.

Trump Organisation CFO Allen Weisselberg pleaded guilty to all 15 of the charges he faced in the case.

In a low voice, he admitted taking in over $1.7 million worth of untaxed perks—including school tuition for his grandchildren, free rent for a Manhattan apartment and lease payments for a luxury car and explicitly keeping some of the plums off the books.

Judge Juan Manuel Merchan agreed to sentence Weisselberg to five months in New York City's Rikers Island jail complex, although he will be eligible for release much earlier if he behaves well behind bars. The judge said Weisselberg will have to pay nearly $2 million in taxes, penalties and interest and complete five years of probation.

The plea bargain also requires Weisselberg to testify truthfully as a prosecution witness when the Trump Organisation goes on trial in October on related charges. The company is accused of helping Weisselberg and others avoid income taxes by failing to report their full compensation accurately to the government. Trump himself is not charged in the case.

Weisselberg said nothing as he left court, offering no reply when a journalist asked whether he had any message for Trump. Weisselberg's lawyer Nicholas Gravante Jr. said his client pleaded guilty to put an end the years-long legal and personal nightmares it has caused for him and his family.

Manhattan District Attorney Alvin Bragg said in a statement that Weisselberg's plea directly implicates the Trump Organisation in a wide range of criminal activity and requires Weisselberg to provide invaluable testimony in the upcoming trial against the corporation.

The company praised Weisselberg on Thursday as a trusted, honourable veteran employee who has been persecuted and threatened by law enforcement, particularly the Manhattan district attorney, in their politically motivated quest to get Trump. If convicted, the company could face fines or potentially be placed on probation and be forced to change certain business practices.

The company accused prosecutors of trying to pressure Weisselberg to cast aspersions on Trump, and of stretching to make a criminal case out of familiar executive perks.

The company said it has done nothing wrong, won't plead guilty and looks forward "to having our day in court." AP

TIGRAY CRISIS: GOVT LASHES OUT AT WHO CHIEF

Ethiopia's government is criticising as unethical the statement by the WHO's director-general that the crisis in the Tigray region is the worst disaster on Earth and his assertion that lack of attention from world may be due to Tigrayans' skin colour

ADVISED TO RECUSE

The spokeswoman for Ethiopia's PM on Thursday said that the comments by WHO chief Tedros Adhanom Ghebreyesus were "unbecoming of such a high-profile position"

Billene Seyoum suggested that Tedros, himself an ethnic Tigrayan, should recuse himself from his post if he wants to talk that way

WHAT TEDROS SAID

Tedros at a press briefing asserted that the people in Tigray have been under siege for the last 21 months due to the conflict erupted between Ethiopian and Tigray forces

"I haven't heard ... any head of state talking about the Tigray situation ... Why? Maybe the reason is the colour of the skin of the people in Tigray", he said

DEMAND OF TIGRAY LEADERS

The resumption of basic services and banking remains a key demand of the Tigray leaders

Billene Seyoum said an operable environment needs to happen for the return of those services, including safety guarantees for service workers in the region

MEDIATION EFFORT

Seyoum noted a government proposal for peace talks in the coming weeks and stressed they must be without preconditions and accused the Tigray leaders of looking for excuses to avoid peace talks

She dismissed Tigray forces' allegations of new attacks by Ethiopian forces as "a mechanism to deflect" discussions on the peace process

Ethiopia's government has said it is willing to hold talks any time, any place but led by its preferred mediator, the African Union special envoy

CONSEQUENCES OF THE CONFLICT

Ethiopia's conflict has serious regional implications, with the potential to destabilise the strategic and sometimes turbulent Horn of Africa region

Very little humanitarian aid was allowed into Tigray after Tigray forces retook much of the region in June 2021

Humanitarian workers and local health workers described people starving to death and basic medical supplies running out

Aid has started flowing more substantially in the past few months but the deliveries are widely described as inadequate to meet the needs of the millions of people trapped there

Rushdie's killer again pleads not guilty at court hearing

MAYVILLE

THE suspected assailant of Salman Rushdie pleaded not guilty on Thursday to attempted murder and assault charges at a brief court hearing in upstate New York.

Speaking through his lawyer, Hadi Matar, 24, reiterated his plea of not guilty to charges he faces for allegedly storming the stage at a literary event last week and stabbing the British novelist several times in the neck and abdomen.

Thursday's appearance at a court in Chautauqua County followed a grand jury indictment, according to county prosecutors.

The judge ordered Matar remain detained without bail. He is next scheduled to appear in court on September 7.

His head bowed, Matar wore a black and white striped prison outfit with orange crocs at the hearing that drew numerous reporters.

Following last Friday's attack, Rushdie was air-lifted to a nearby hospital for emergency surgery.

His condition remains serious but the 75-year-old has shown signs of improvement, and he has been taken off a ventilator.

The prize-winning writer spent years under police protection after Iranian leaders called for his killing over his portrayal of Islam and the Prophet Mohammed in his novel 1988 'The Satanic Verses.'

He was about to be interviewed as part of a lecture series at the Chautauqua Institution when a man rushed the stage and stabbed him repeatedly in the neck and abdomen.

Hadi Matar was wrestled to the ground by staff and audience members at the lecture, before police took him into custody. AFP

Matar says he acted alone in the attack

The 24-year-old man charged with the attempted murder of Salman Rushdie has denied being in contact with Iran's Revolutionary Guard Corps (IRGC) and said that he acted alone when he stabbed the Mumbai-born author. The IRGC is a major military and political force in Iran. However, no link has been definitively established between Matar and the IRGC

US to hold agriculture, trade talks with Taiwan

HUALIEN

THE US government will hold trade talks with Taiwan in a sign of support for the island democracy that China claims as its own territory, prompting Beijing to warn Thursday it will take action if necessary to safeguard its sovereignty.

The announcement of trade talks comes after Beijing fired missiles into the sea to intimidate Taiwan after US House Speaker Nancy Pelosi visited the island.

Chinese President Xi Jinping's government criticised the planned talks and warned Washington not to encourage the island to try to make its de facto independence permanent, a step Beijing says would lead to war.

"China firmly opposes this," Ministry of Commerce spokesperson Shu Jueting said.

On Thursday, Taiwan's military held a drill with missiles and cannons simulating a response to a Chinese missile attack.

The US Trade Representative's announcement of the talks made no mention of tension with Beijing but said formal negotiations would develop trade and regulatory ties.

Taiwan's Foreign Ministry expressed high welcome for the trade talks, which it said will lead to a new page in relations with the United States.

The US Trade Representative said negotiations would be conducted under the auspices of Washington's unofficial embassy, the American Institute in Taiwan.

The US-Taiwanese talks will also cover agriculture, labour, the environment, digital technology, the status of state-owned enterprises and "non-market policies," the US Trade Representative said. AP

Turkey agrees to work on infrastructure in Ukraine

LVIV

TURKEY'S president and the UN chief met with Ukrainian President Volodymr Zelenskyy on Thursday in a high-stakes bid to ratchet down a war raging for nearly six months, discuss desperately needed grain exports and address the safety of Europe's biggest nuclear power plant.

The gathering, held far from the front lines in the western Ukrainian city of Lviv, near the Polish border, marked the first visit to Ukraine by Turkey's Recep Tayyip Erdogan since the outbreak of the war, and the second by UN Secretary-General António Guterres.

Erdogan has positioned himself as a go-between in efforts to stop the fighting. While Turkey is a member of NATO which backs Ukraine, its wobbly economy is reliant on Russia for trade.

At the meetings, Turkey agreed to help rebuild Ukraine's infrastructure, including roads and bridges, and Zelenskyy asked Guterres to seek UN access to Ukrainian citizens deported to Russia, according to the Ukrainian president's Website. Zelenskyy also requested UN help in freeing captured Ukrainian soldiers and medics.

Erdogan also warned of a nuclear disaster in Ukraine during the talks. "We are worried. We don't want another Chernobyl," Erdogan said during a press conference in Lviv, during which he also assured the Ukrainian leader that Ankara was a firm ally.

"While continuing our efforts to find a solution, we remain on the side of our Ukraine friends," Erdogan said.

Guterres said he was gravely concerned about the situation at the plant and said it had to be demilitarised, adding, "We must tell it like it is—any potential damage to Zaporizhzhia is suicide".

A flare up in fighting around Europe's largest nuclear facility in Russian-controlled southern Ukraine has sparked urgent warnings from world leaders. AP

Lanka Police arrest student convener for anti-govt protests

COLOMBO

SRI Lanka police fired water cannons and tear gas and arrested five members of a student organisation to quell an anti-government protest that erupted in the crisis-hit island nation on Thursday, the day the state of emergency imposed by President Ranil Wickremesinghe elapsed.

Sri Lanka is in the midst of an unprecedented economic crisis that has led to severe shortages of fuel and other essentials. In July, Wickremesinghe imposed a state of emergency after Gotabaya Rajapaksa fled and resigned from his post following massive anti-government protests over the mishandling of the economy.

The state of emergency elapsed on midnight Wednesday and Wickremesinghe said he would not extend it as the situation had stabilised and protests have petered out.

On Thursday, members of a student organisation named Inter University Student's Federation (IUSF) staged a protest from Lipton Circus in central Colombo, before police intervened by firing water cannons and tear gas at them. The crackdown was followed with the arrest of five members of IUSF.

The convener of IUSF, Wasantha Mudalige and four student activists were arrested by the police, as per newsfirst.lk.

The emergency protocols empower security officials to detain suspects for long periods and conduct searches without issuing warrants.

Wickremesinghe was elected Sri Lanka's eighth president last month after his predecessor Rajapaksa fled to Singapore after irate protesters stormed his official residence and occupied key government buildings.

On July 9, in remarkable scenes of a country in meltdown, anti-government protesters also set Wickremesinghe's private residence at Cambridge Place here on fire. PTI

Ex-PM Najib starts bid to overturn jail sentence

Malaysia's top court on Thursday began hearing ex-leader Najib Razak's appeal to overturn his jail sentence for corruption in a high-stakes legal gambit that could see him locked up or potentially launching a political comeback. Following a brief drama at the Federal Court seen as an attempt by defence lawyers to delay proceedings, government prosecutors started outlining why the former prime minister's 12-year jail sentence over a financial scandal at state fund 1MDB should stay. Lead defence lawyer Hisyam Teh Poh Teik surprised the court Thursday by telling the panel of five judges that he wanted to be discharged from the case, citing inadequate time to prepare as he had been recently appointed. The court, however, refused to discharge him and Chief Justice Tengku Maimun Tuan Mat ordered the prosecution to present its case

Saudi doctoral student gets 34 years in prison for tweets

DUBAI

A Saudi court has sentenced a doctoral student to 34 years in prison for spreading rumors and retweeting dissidents, according to court documents obtained on Thursday, a decision that has drawn growing global condemnation.

Activists and lawyers consider the sentence against Salma al-Shehab, a mother of two and a researcher at Leeds University in Britain, shocking even by Saudi standards of justice.

So far unacknowledged by the kingdom, the ruling comes amid Crown Prince Mohammed bin Salman's crackdown on dissent even as his rule granted women the right to drive and other new freedoms.

Al-Shehab was detained during a family vacation on January 15, 2021, just days before she planned to return to the UK, as per the Freedom Initiative, a Washington-based human rights group.

Al-Shehab told judges she had been held for over 285 days in solitary confinement before her case was even referred to court.

The Freedom Initiative describes al-Shehab as a member of Saudi Arabia's Shiite Muslim minority, which has long complained of systematic discrimination in the Sunni-ruled kingdom.

Amnesty International slammed al-Shehab's trial as grossly unfair and her sentence as cruel and unlawful.

Judges accused al-Shehab of disturbing public order and destabilising the social fabric claims stemming solely from her social media activity.

The specialised criminal court handed down the unusually harsh 34-year sentence under Saudi counterterrorism and cybercrime laws, to be followed by a 34-year travel ban. The decision came earlier this month as al-Shehab appealed her initial sentence of six years.

She told judges she had no idea that simply retweeting posts out of curiosity and to observe others viewpoints constituted terrorism. AP

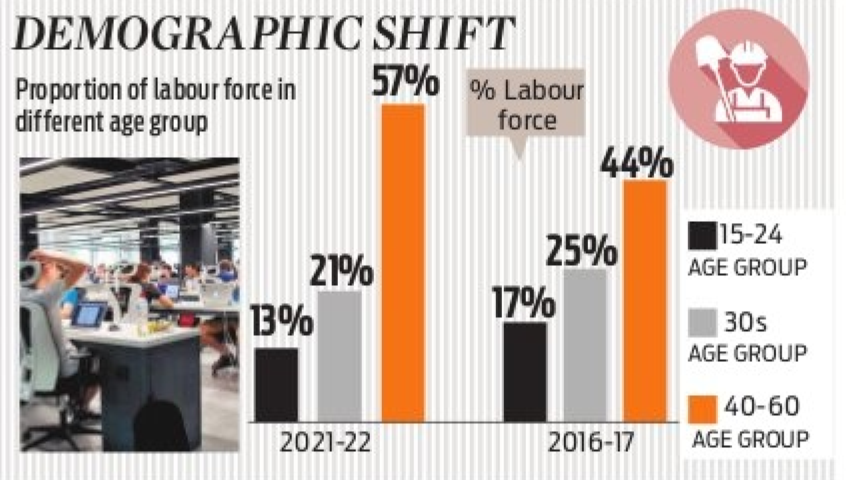
Labour force gets older, less educated: CMIE

Proportion of labour force in 40-60 age group has risen to 57% in 2021-22 from 42% in 2016-17

SAMIKSHA GOEL @ New Delhi



INDIA'S labour force is getting older and also less educated, said Centre for Monitoring Indian Economy (CMIE) in its weekly analysis report.

As per CMIE's Consumer Pyramids Household Survey (CPHS), 17% of the labour force was in 15-24 years age bracket in 2016-17, it dropped to 13% by 2021-22. As the labour market is unable to absorb new manpower, the composition of the workforce is increasingly ageing, said the report.

As per CMIE data, in 2016-17, a quarter of the total employment was of people below the age of 30. This fell to 21% by 2019-20 and then to 18% by 2021-22. The proportion of the workforce in their thirties has also fallen from 25% in 2016-17 to 21% in 2021-22. "As a result, what is left in the workforce is mostly people in their forties and fifties."

In 2016-17, 42% of the workforce was in their forties and fifties; by 2019-20, this number had risen to 51%. By 2021-22, their proportion had risen to 57%.

"If the composition of the labour force and of the employed population is getting increasingly older and less educated then the chances of reaping a demographic dividend fade away." Falling workforce participation by the youth, according to Mahesh Vyas, managing director and CEO of CMIE, has happened because youngsters have delayed joining the labour market for one reason or the other.

He also notes that the educational qualification of the workforce is deteriorating. India's workforce, says CMIE, comprises mostly people whose maximum qualification is secondary education (who cleared their 10th or 12th level).

The demand and need for young workforce also reflects in a report by employment consultancy Teamlease on Thursday, which reveals that 59% of employers in India are keen to hire freshers between July and December 2022 – a 12% increase as against the first half of 2022 and a 42% increase compared to the second half of 2021.

Shantanu Rooj, founder & CEO, TeamLease EdTech, said, "More employers are willing to increase their freshers resource pool is, in fact, an evidence of this trend and indicates that the employability of the country's youth has undergone a value-driven change over the last few years."

Ashwini Vaishnaw asks telecom operators to prepare for 5G launch

ENS ECONOMIC BUREAU @ New Delhi

ISSUING the spectrum allocation letters, the telecom minister Ashwini Vaishnaw on Thursday in Twitter post urged the telecom service providers (TSPs) to prepare for the launch of 5G services in India.

Interestingly, the government for the first time issued the spectrum assignment letters on the same day to the successful bidder who made upfront payment.

The speedy allocation of the spectrum by the Department of Telecom (DoT) was welcomed by the industry. Bharti Airtel Chairman Sunil Bharti Mittal praised the government for the ease of doing business.

He said the allocation letter for the ₹8,312.4 crore payments made by Airtel towards spectrum dues on Wednesday for the designated frequency bands was provided within hours. "E band allocation was given along with spectrum as promised. No Fuss, No Follow Up, No running around the corridors and No tall claims. This is the ease of doing business at work in its full glory. In my over 30 years of first-hand experience with DOT, this is a first ! Business as it should be."

"Leadership at work - right at the top and at the helm of telecom. What a Change! Change that can transform this nation – power its dreams to be a developed nation," said Mittal.

The government mopped ₹1.53 lakh crore in the recently-concluded 5G spectrum auction. It has received ₹17,876 crore as upfront payment from Airtel, Reliance Jio, Adani Data Networks and Vodafone Idea. India's largest telecom operator Reliance Jio paid ₹7,864 crore, while Vodafone Idea paid ₹1679 crore and Adani Data Networks paid ₹18 crore as their first instalment. India's second-largest telco Airtel chose to pay four instalments in one go, as against 20 equal annual instalments in the next 20 years. Jio and Airtel are expected to start their 5G services this month.

Ficci Senior Vice President Subhrakant Panda said the ease, speed and transparency of the 5G spectrum auction process is a live example of much-improved 'Ease of Doing Business'.

Festive season likely to boost demand, says RBI

MONIKA YADAV @ New Delhi

RBI in its state of the economy report has said that supply conditions in India are improving, with the recent monsoon pick-up, strong momentum in manufacturing and a rebound in services.

The onset of the festival season should boost consumer demand, including rural, also as sowing activity picks up. Robust central government capital outlays are supporting investment activity, it said.

As per the apex bank, India's economy is resilient in comparison to the rest of the world. The private consumption expenditure will get a boost in view of upcoming festive season, besides buoying the subdued rural demand.

"Investment demand is benefiting from the massive increase of 54% in the central government's capital outlay, but business investment remains tepid in spite of strong sales growth and increase in profits," RBI said.

Meanwhile, total merchandise exports are set to rise with the reduction in windfall levy on fuel exports. Easing of international crude oil prices will also bring down the import bill, allowing net exports to improve their contribution to aggregate demand. The central bank is confident about the state of the economy on account of three developments – launch of 5G connectivity, better-than-expected corporate earnings and active recognition of climate change as a risk to the stability of the financial system.

Moreover, moderation in inflation and return of capital flows to India after a hiatus have been the most heartening developments in the recent time, RBI concluded. Inflation in July 2022 declined by 30 bps from June 2022 and an appreciable 60 bps from the average of 7.3 percent for the first quarter of FY23.

"India is becoming a preferred destination for portfolio flows - in August so far (until 12th), equity and debt segments recorded net inflow of US$ 4.4 billion and 0.3 billion, respectively," the report said. "The challenges before us are to regain the momentum lost to the pandemic and the shocks that followed in its train, close the infrastructure gap ."

No big bang privatisation of PSBs, say RBI economists

ENS ECONOMIC BUREAU @ New Delhi

PRIVATISATION is not a panacea for all ills, say RBI economists as they argue against big bang privatisation of public sector banks.

The economists have instead argued for a gradual approach to privatisation so as no to create a void in fulfilling important social objectives of financial inclusion and monetary transmission.

A study by the economists of the Department of Economic and Policy Research, Reserve Bank of India, has noted that public sector banks (PSBs) are not solely driven by profit maximisation but they have done better in promoting financial inclusion. The study also notes that PSBs score over private banks on labour cost efficiency.

The study says that PSBs account for the highest share of bank branches in rural areas, followed by semi-urban areas. They also dominate in meeting the credit demand of rural areas – PSBs account for 63% of rural credit compared to 16% of private banks. Though private banks are making some inroads in the rural areas, their progress remains slow, says the study. The study says that when profit maximization is the sole motive, efficiency of private banks surpass that of PSBs but when "the objective function is changed to include financial inclusion —like total branches, agricultural advances and PSL advances— PSBs prove to be more efficient than private banks".

The PSBs' also score over private banks in terms of labor cost efficiency. "This implies that incurring lower cost on labour, the PSBs can generate higher levels of output," says the study.

The RBI economists have studied the banks on various parameters since 2010.

'Market forces should fix digital payments charges'

UMA KANNAN @ Bengaluru

THE pricing of financial instruments should be left up to market forces, as it is important that players should continue to innovate, say experts.

The Reserve Bank of India (RBI) has released a discussion paper on charges in payment systems. This includes all payment systems such as Unified Payments Interface (UPI), Immediate Payment Service (IMPS) and National Electronic Funds Transfer (NEFT), among others. "Charges in a payment system are the costs imposed by the PSPs (payment service provider) on the users (originators or beneficiaries) for facilitating a digital transaction. The charges are recovered from the originators or the beneficiaries depending on the type of payment system" the RBI said.

Payment systems operators incur expenditure to create and operate safe and secure payment systems, acquire customers, and comply with regulations. The cost related framework should be market-determined, said Saurabh Puri, Chief Business Officer, Credit cards, Zaggle.

The Payments Council of India (PCI) has appreciated the issuance of a discussion paper. Vishwas Patel, Chairman, PCI and Director, Infibeam Avenues said that pricing of financial instruments should be left up to market forces, to continue to support the required investments and innovation in digital payments. As an industry body, PCI will submit detailed feedback to the RBI.

Rajat Deshpande, CEO and Co-founder, FinBox said it's high time that we align incentives in a way that players continue to innovate and build cutting-edge digital experiences. "The pricing structure must have incentives for both - users to access the services and service providers to offer them," he said. He added that different participating entities would have different cost structures to overcome. Hence, a regulatory policy must leave enough room for entities to adopt revenue models that fit them best rather than having to necessarily take a straightjacket model. The central bank has also sought feedback on interchange for credit card transactions and whether MDR (merchant discount rate) for credit cards should be regulated.

Switch to supply 200 electric double-decker buses to Mumbai

As of now, Switch is operating its twin-floor electric AC buses in the UK. Switch India has already secured an order of 200 electric double-decker buses in Mumbai and is looking at a dominant space in this segment across key regions in the country, the company said.

"We will deliver 50 of these buses this financial year. Many more cities are discussing with us for these buses," said Mahesh Babu, CEO – Switch Mobility India and COO at Switch Mobility. He added, "We are expecting to deliver some 150-250 buses next year." In April this year, Switch Mobility announced an investment of £300 million to develop a range of electric buses and light commercial vehicles in India and the UK.

GST officials asked not to summon MDs, CEOs in routine matters

ENS ECONOMIC BUREAU @New Delhi

TAKING note of the fact that officials of the Goods and Services Tax (GST) department have been issuing summons to top officials of companies in a routine manner, the government has asked tax officials not to issue summons in the first stance to MD, CEO, CFOs, etc in such matters.

The revenue department has also taken note of the fact that GST officials are asking the top management officials of the companies for documents which are already available on the GST portal. To ensure that such harassment of top officials by the GST department does not become a routine, the revenue department has issued guidelines in this regard. The guidelines broadly clarify various procedural aspects, including summons should be preauthorised, proceedings to be recorded on file, etc.

According to the guidelines, summons by superintendents should be issued after obtaining prior written permission from an officer not below the rank of deputy or assistant commissioner. They also say that officers issuing summons should record in file about appearance/ non-appearance of the summoned person. Also, officials must avoid issuing repeated summons without ensuring service of the summons. The guidelines provide that Document Identification Number (DIN) should be mentioned in the summons which will enable easy tracking for the summons"

Tax professionals and businesses in the past have said that the power to issue repeated summons to the top management of a corporation is often used as a tool for harassment by the GST officials. Businesses have also gone to court against GST officials using coercive means to recover taxes.

Air traffic falls 7.6% in July, IndiGo's mkt share at 58.8%

ENS ECONOMIC BUREAU @New Delhi

DOMESTIC air traffic fell 7.6% month-in-month in July 2022 to 97 lakh passengers, aviation regulator DGCA said on Thursday. About 1.05 crore domestic passengers had boarded planes in June.

Since May 2022 when domestic traffic reached to pre-covid level of 1.20 crore/month, there has been a steady decline in domestic passenger movement. While the government has attributed this decline to the rainy season when demand for air travel is generally low, there is no denial that the steep surge in air ticket prices has forced many passengers to either postpone their travel plans or find an alternative. Arun Kumar, DGCA director general, said they expect a speedy recovery in passenger numbers and foresee traffic reaching the pre-Covid levels in the fourth quarter of the year with the removal of the fare cap from September 1. IndiGo – India's largest carrier -- carried 57.11 lakh passengers in July. Its market share in the domestic market increased to 58.8% in July 2022 as against 56.9% in June 2022. Tata Group run Vistara flew 10.13 lakh passengers and Air India flew 8.14 lakh passengers in July.

Maruti backlog grows to nearly 4 lakh units, launches AltoK10

ARSHAD KHAN @New Delhi

INDIA largest carmaker Maruti Suzuki's (MSIL) pending order book has grown from 2.80 lakh units as of June 30, 2022, to 3.87 lakh units till Thursday, showcasing the strong demand for the recently-launched Brezza and soon-to-be-launched Grand Vitara.

According to Shashank Srivastava, senior executive director, marketing & sales at MSIL, they have received over 40,000 bookings for its mid-size SUV Grand Vitara without delivering a single unit and they have a pending order of 75,000 units for its recently-launched updated compact SUV Brezza. Maruti's other models such as Ertiga and Baleno also have huge order backlog.

"On average we have received 200 booking/day for new Alto K10. We expected this number to go up post the price announcement," said Srivastava as MSIL launched the updated variant of its best-selling car Alto at an aggressive price of ₹3.99 lakhs.

While MSIL's order book continues to grow, the carmaker's production is yet to reach 100% level due to on-going shortage in supply of semi-conductor.

"There seems to be improvement on the semiconductor front. In September 2021, production level was only 40%, which improved to over 90% in July. However, we will not see 100% normalisation of production in August and in September. After that, a lot will depend on the global supply chain." He also said sentiment in the passenger vehicle (PV) market is improving even as total sales FY2021-21 was similar to sales in FY 2016-17. "For the first time, the PV industry saw 2 consecutive quarters when sales exceeded 900,000 units. Its PV sales in July stood at 342,000 units, highest for any month in the automotive industry and August seems to clock a similar number" he said.

SC RESPITE FOR IOA

CoA not to take charge, SG says it can lead to suspension

INDRANEEL DAS @Chennai

IN a significant move, the Supreme Court has asked all stakeholders to put on hold Delhi High Court order that asked Committee of Administrators (CoA) to take over Indian Olympic Association. The IOA had approached the Supreme Court on Thursday and asked them to look into the matter because this could attract suspension from the International Olympic Committee (IOC). The matter has been listed for Monday, the same day when the international football federation (FIFA) suspension would be heard.

According to the court order, the senior counsel for IOA had orally mentioned that the association could be suspended like AIFF if CoA is put in place. Interestingly, solicitor general, Tushar Mehta, representing Union of India, also briefed the court and pointed out that "by virtue of the present order passed by the High Court of Delhi, there is every possibility that Indian athletes might lose the chance of participating in international events, including the Olympics".

The sports ministry has already been trying to break the suspension placed on AIFF by FIFA. Only if that suspension is revoked will India be allowed to host the U-17 World Cup as scheduled in October. The ministry apparently is not comfortable that the IOA, the mother organisation of all Olympic sports in the country, too has been placed under the CoA. If it attracts a suspension, the next year's IOC session to be held in Mumbai too could be under a cloud. The court said: "It has been further stated that if the impugned order is allowed to operate, it would be not in the best interest of the nation.

Committed to abide by sports code: IOA

INDRANEEL DAS @Chennai

THE Indian Olympic Association (IOA) is still hoping to find a solution and avoid any indication of suspension after the Delhi High Court brought in three Committee of Administrators (CoA) to look after IOA's day-to-day functioning (they are yet to take charge). Hours after the Supreme Court stayed the High Court order on Thursday, IOA acting president Anil Khanna spoke about IOA's predicament and the issues they are trying to resolve. He did not comment on the High Court order but pointed out what the IOA is doing.

"As an institution, we are committed to abide by the sports code and the law of the land completely," Khanna told this newspaper. "We have been adhering to the code and want all our constituent units and members to follow as well. Since all National Sports Federations (NSFs) get grants, the sports ministry monitors closely whether or not they follow sports code. Recognition is based on adherence." "We have participated at the Commonwealth Games successfully," he said. "We are in the process of hosting the National Games in Gujarat where a record number of around 10000 athletes and officials are expected to participate. So we are doing a lot.

"We are totally cooperating with the government of India," he said. "We want India to be among the top IOC representatives. The 2023 IOC session is next year. We hope to host multi-discipline events soon."

On certain provisions of the code are not being followed by state associations, he said they are working on it. The court had said that state units cannot be part of IOA and that if included they won't have voting rights. Interestingly, the Olympic Charter allows besides 70 individual members, 15 representatives of International Federations and 15 from National Olympic Committees, while 15 are active athletes.

> We have agreed with most of the 13 points the honourable court had mentioned. There are two-three points that we need to discuss and we are working on them.
> —Anil Khanna

Khanna also pointed out that the IOA has agreed to most of the 13 points that had been addressed by the court. "We have agreed with most of the 13 points the honourable court had mentioned. There are two-three points that we need to discuss and we are working on them."

Among the points that Khanna said the IOA was working on is which are the NSFs that should be in the IOA. "Olympic sports NSFs are fine but we cannot ignore other sports as well. Take for example traditional and indigenous sports like kabaddi, kho-kho and so on. They should be part of IOA like other NSFs. That way we can promote them. Recently we had a discussion about promoting indigenous sports during Commonwealth Games Federation meeting."

Irish Dunne in pole position to become India boxing HPD

ANMOL GURUNG @Chennai

IT has been a while since Santiago Nieva moved away from Indian boxing, leaving the role of high performance director vacant. There are murmurs that his replacement could arrive soon. This newspaper has learnt that Bernard Dunne, a former Irish World Boxing Association (WBA) Super Bantamweight champion, is favourite to fill in that post.

Dunne, nicknamed the Dublin Dynamo, had a rich career as a professional boxer with 28 wins in 30 fights (15 wins by knockout). He was associated with the Irish Athletic Boxing Association as their high performance director from 2017 until May this year. Dunne had earned high respect from many amateur boxers including Olympic gold medallist Kellie Harrington during his time there. It is learnt that he's close to finalising an agreement with the Sports Authority of India and the Boxing Federation of India. Like Nieva, Dunne, 42, is a young face and will be looking to pick up from where the former left off and help Indian pugilists get all the tools required to be a success at the 2024 Paris Olympics.

If things go according to plan, Dunne could join as early as the beginning of next month. That could be ideal for the Indian boxers, who put up a creditable show during the recently-held Commonwealth Games in Birmingham. The Indians finished second behind Northern Ireland in the overall standings with seven medals (3G, 1S and 3B).

Next year will be vital for the Paris aspirants as the Olympic qualifiers will be held.

India take 1-0 lead against Zimbabwe

GOMESH S @Chennai

Pacer Deepak Chahar claimed three wickets in the first ODI | AP

Brief scores: Zimbabwe 189 all out in 40.3 ovs (Chakabva 35, Chahar 3/27, Axar 3/24) lost to India 192/0 in 30.5 ovs (Gill 82 n.o, Dhawan 81 n.o).

NEW ball wickets, check. Control from spinners, check. Solid platform from openers, check. Things went as expected at the Harare Sports Club on Thursday as India ticked several boxes on their way to a dominating 10-wicket victory against hosts Zimbabwe.

Comeback man Deepak Chahar showed what he was capable of, swinging the ball early on, running through the Zimbabwe top-order. With Mohammed Siraj, too, chipping in, India reduced the hosts to 31/4 in no time. Sikandar Raza, who's been in the form of his life, couldn't do much as he fell for 12 runs from 17 balls to the pace of Prasidh Krishna. Spinners took charge from thereon, as Zimbabwe slumped further to 110/8. While Axar Patel bagged three wickets, Kuldeep Yadav, one of the players trying to find a spot in the XI, exerted control from the other end, making sure that the hosts did not recover. They scrapped their way to 189, largely thanks to Brad Evans (33 n.o)and Richard Ngarava (34).

With the bat, India had very little trouble as their opening pair of Shikhar Dhawan and Shubman Gill strolled through the chase with ease. The duo picked up from where they left in the West Indies, putting up yet another century stand. Dhawan (81 n.o) and Gill (82 n.o) brought up their respective half centuries, as India chased down the target in 30.5 overs.

That said, it's not like India did not have any issues to address.

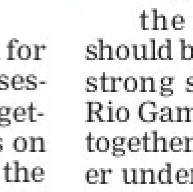
Want to hunt world title: Doubles coach Boe

SWAROOP SWAMINATHAN
@ Chennai



THE duo of Satwiksairaj Rankireddy and Chirag Shetty has, by and large, been on song in 2022. Three titles, wins over elite opponents and at least reaching the quarterfinals in all but two events this year. Yet, what happens over the nine days or so will likely shape the perception of their season.

Coach Mathias Boe is mindful of that. While he calls the preparation as 'not ideal' — "coming in from a tournament after being in the UK for two weeks" — the next few sessions will be dedicated to getting used to the conditions on offer in Tokyo. "I know all the players in and out so that's not required (looking at the strengths and weaknesses of the opponents)," he says. "It's just some finetuning and my job is to watch a few videos and see... I will take care of that for them. More like getting over the jet lag, getting used to the different courts and all these things. What's the drift going to be? We will use our sessions to adjust to these new facilities and memorise the things we need to do."

While the draw is not exactly straightforward — Rankireddy and Shetty could run into 2016 silver-medallists Goh V Shem and Tan Wee Kiong — Boe, who won two Worlds medals in his playing time, is confident. "I have seen the draw, first match should be okay. Then we have a strong silver medallist from Rio Games but they don't play together anymore. But we never underestimate anyone and we need to try and play at our best. That's also our goal. If we play close to our top level, we are good enough to beat all the teams."
